the Manor

1958

Per Fidem

Ad

Plenam Veritatem

1958 MANOR STAFF

PETER BALDETTI
Editor-in-Chief

LAWRENCE FAYETTE
Associate Editor

PHILIP CALCINA
Literary Editor

WILBUR FOMENTO
Photography Editor

JOHN WEISS
Business Manager

GERALD GINGRAS
Layout Editor

RICHARD WARFLE
Art Editor

THE MANOR

Presented by

THE CLASS OF

1958

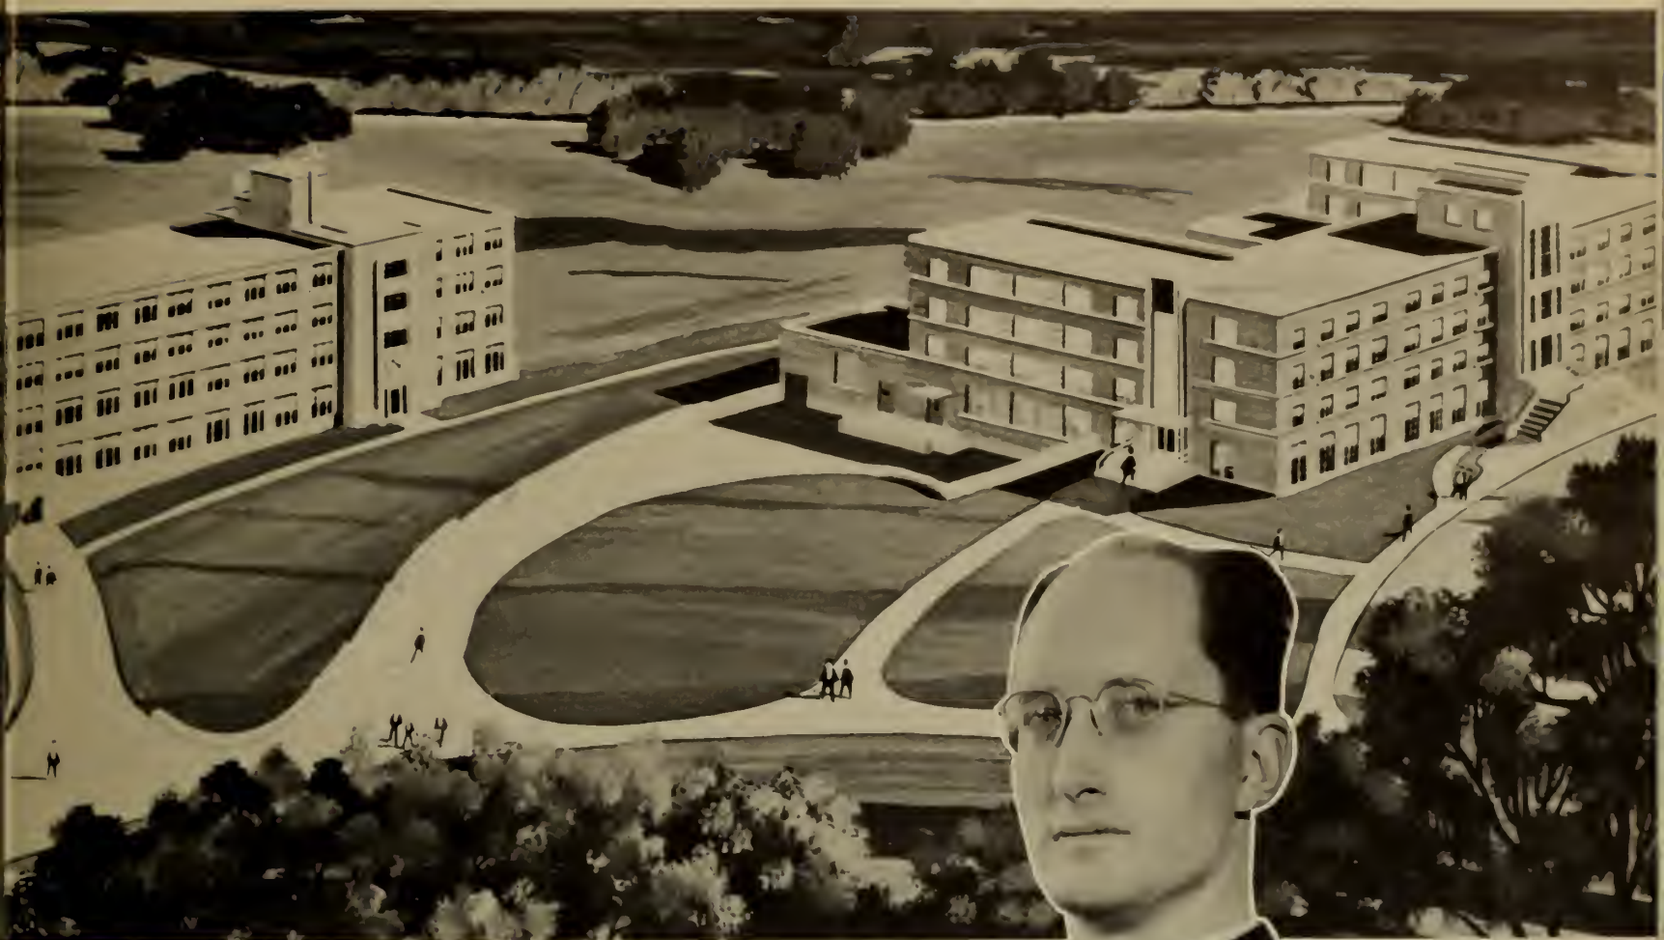
FAIRFIELD UNIVERSITY

Fairfield, Connecticut

HIS DREAM...

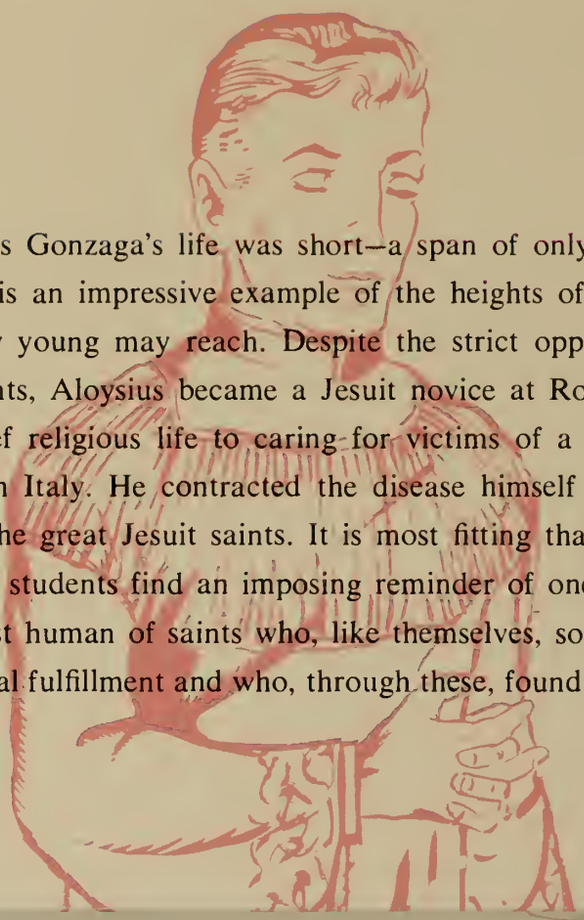
It has been said that behind every great accomplishment there has been a great dream lying latent and waiting to be brought to fruition. The growth of Fairfield University is no exception. But between the dream and its fulfillment lies an arduous and often thankless task, which calls for men of great strength and foresight. The buildings of Fairfield University stand in mute testimony to the tireless work of the man who made them possible. We, the graduating class of Fairfield University, who have seen both the dream and its fulfillment, humbly and gratefully dedicate these our memories of Fairfield to the Reverend Laurence C. Langguth, S.J.

In his monumentis lapideis executio conceptionis est.



Reverend
LAURENCE C. LANGGUTH, S.J.

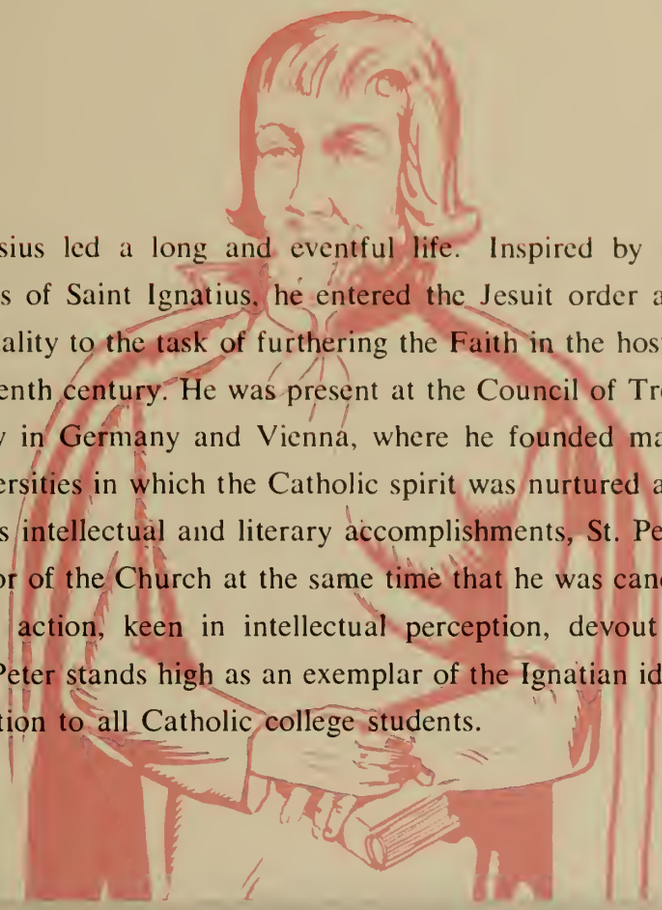
. . . OUR



St. Aloysius Gonzaga's life was short—a span of only twenty-three years—but it is an impressive example of the heights of sanctity that even the very young may reach. Despite the strict opposition of his wealthy parents, Aloysius became a Jesuit novice at Rome and dedicated his brief religious life to caring for victims of a plague which swept through Italy. He contracted the disease himself and died the youngest of the great Jesuit saints. It is most fitting that in Gonzaga Hall Fairfield students find an imposing reminder of one of the humblest and most human of saints who, like themselves, sought religious and intellectual fulfillment and who, through these, found eternal glory.

GONZAGA HALL

REALITY



St. Peter Canisius led a long and eventful life. Inspired by the Spiritual Exercises of Saint Ignatius, he entered the Jesuit order and directed all his vitality to the task of furthering the Faith in the hostile world of the sixteenth century. He was present at the Council of Trent and fought heresy in Germany and Vienna, where he founded many colleges and universities in which the Catholic spirit was nurtured and developed. For his intellectual and literary accomplishments, St. Peter was made a Doctor of the Church at the same time that he was canonized. Dynamic in action, keen in intellectual perception, devout in personal life, St. Peter stands high as an exemplar of the Ignatian ideal and as an inspiration to all Catholic college students.

CANISIUS HALL

OUR LADY OF FAIRFIELD

CANISIUS HALL

XAVIER HALL

BELLARMINE HALL

McAULIFFE HALL

McAULIFFE CHAPEL

A tour about...

LOYOLA HALL

LOYOLA CHAPEL

LOYOLA LOUNGE

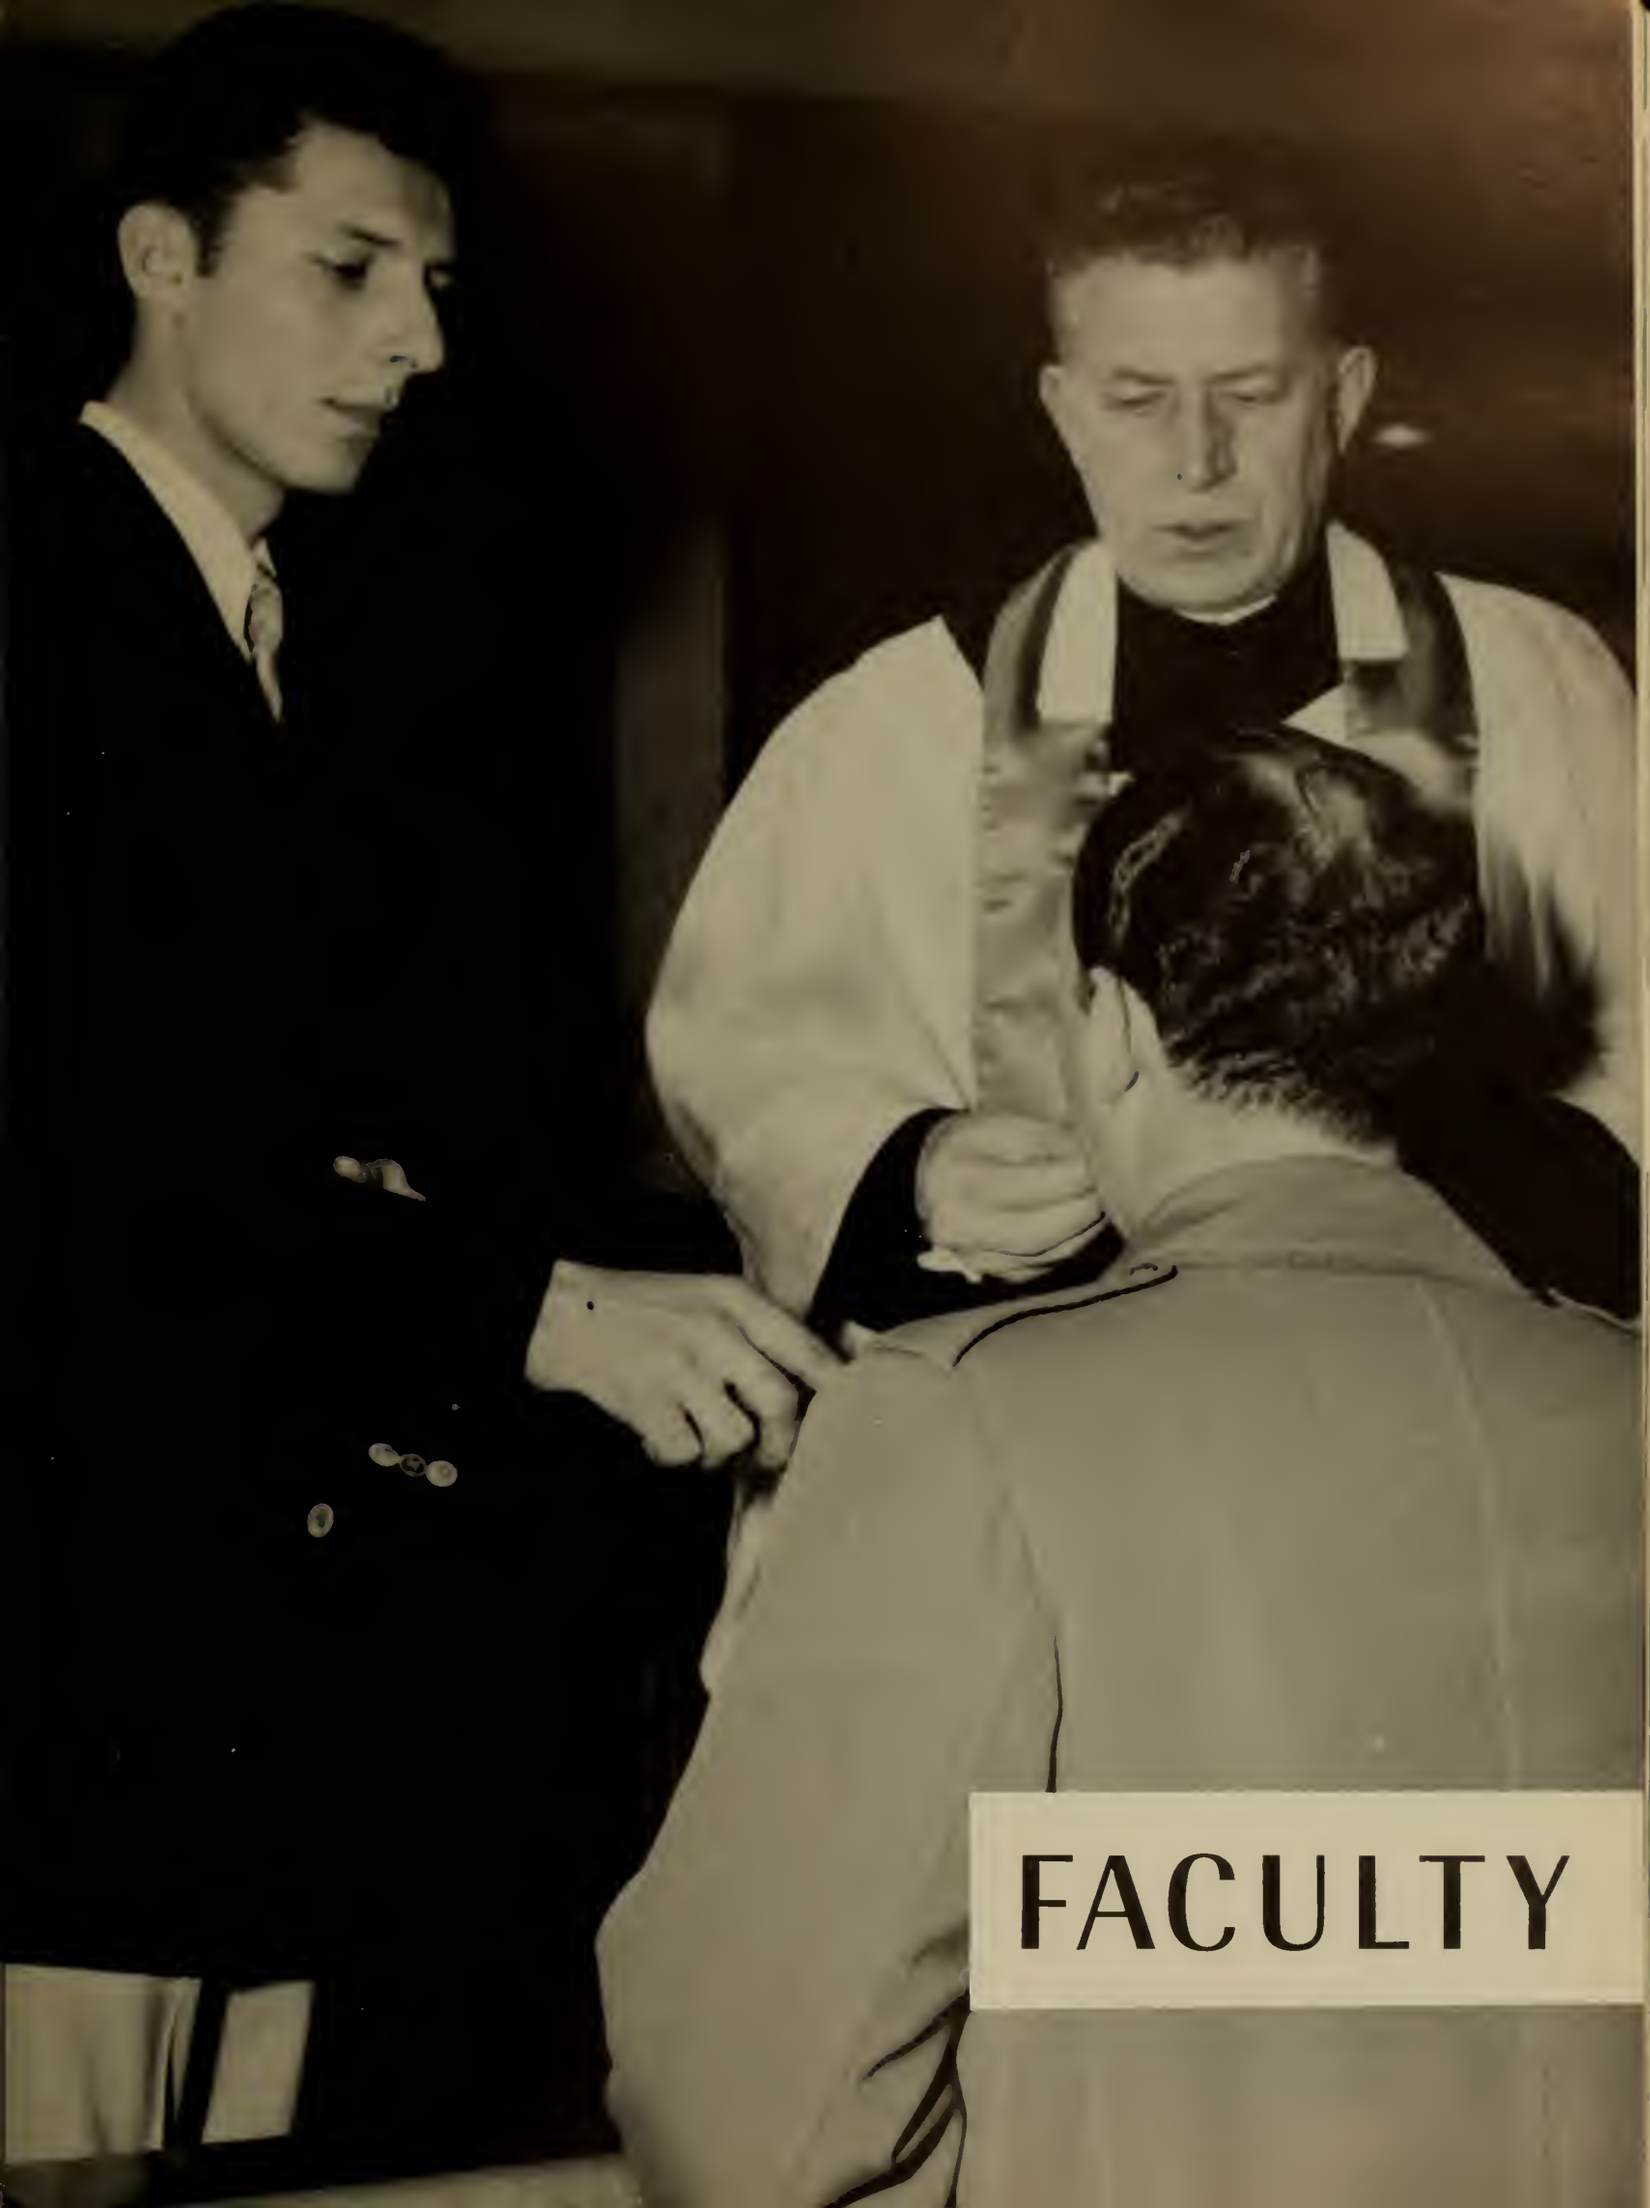
...the campus

CANISIUS HALL

BELLARMINE POND

RIGHT REVEREND LAWRENCE J. SHEEHAN
Bishop of Bridgeport

SECTAMINI CARITATEM



FACULTY

FAIRFIELD UNIVERSITY
FAIRFIELD, CONNECTICUT

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

To the members of the Class of 1958:

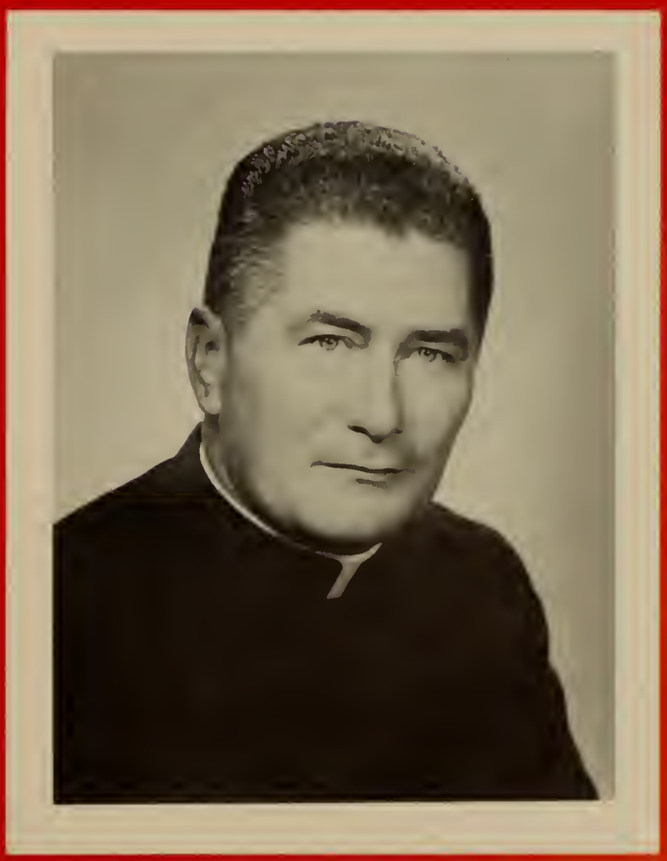
You are the eighth class to be graduated from our young institution. We of the Faculty congratulate and rejoice with you on the occasion of your graduation. To you, as with your predecessors, go our fond hopes for your welfare and success in the days and years ahead. The measure of that success will be as a mirror reflecting on your Alma Mater. For it will show to what degree you have benefited from your years at Fairfield University. This will be evident in your abiding concern for continuing the learning process, for sharing your strength of character so that you may become conspicuous as a person of sound thinking and upright living, fashioning your life from a genuine and profound love of God.

We bid you Godspeed with earnest trust in your high aspirations and firm confidence in your ability, determination and loyalty.

Joseph D. FitzGerald, S.J.

(Rev.) Joseph D. FitzGerald, S. J.
President

REV. WILLIAM J. HEALY, S.J.
Dean



REV. GEORGE McCABE, S.J.
Executive Assistant to President

REV. GEORGE S. MAHAN, S.J.
Assistant Dean

REV. THOMAS F. LYONS, S.J.
Dean of Students

REV. HARRY L. HUSS, S.J.
Treasurer

REV. FRANCIS A. SMALL, S.J.
Librarian

MR. ROBERT F. PITT
Registrar

REV. JOSEPH McCORMACK, S.J.
Dean of Resident Students

REV. AUGUSTINE CAFFREY, S.J.
Assistant Dean of Resident Students

MR. FRED W. TARTARO
Director of Placement and Public Relations

Mr. Norman L. Allard
Assistant Treasurer

Mr. Frank Ash
Instructor in Business

Mr. Guy R. Barbano
Instructor in Accounting

Dr. John A. Barone
Associate Professor of Chemistry

Miss Suzanne Betlach
Assistant Librarian

Mr. George Babcock, S.J.
Instructor in Economics and Business

Mr. Robert E. Bolger
Instructor in Mathematics

Rev. John L. Bonn, S.J.
Professor of English and Latin

Mr. Daniel Buczek
Assistant Professor of History

Rev. William F. Burns, S.J.
Associate Professor of Physics and Mathematics

Rev. Augustine Caffrey, S.J.
Instructor in Theology

Mr. Salvatore A. Carrano
Instructor in Chemistry

Rev. John L. Clancy, S.J.
Professor of Philosophy

Rev. James H. Coughlin, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Education

Mr. Arsene Croteau
Professor of Modern Languages

Rev. John D. Donoghue, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Philosophy

Mr. Carmen F. Donnarumma
Assistant Professor of History

Rev. Charles Duffy, S.J.
Bookstore Attendant

Rev. Anthony J. Eiardi, S.J.
Associate Professor of Mathematics

Mr. Robert G. Emerich
Instructor in English

Rev. Charles A. Farrington, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Theology

Mr. Thomas J. Fitzpatrick
Assistant Professor of Accounting and Business

Mr. Mario F. Guarcello
Assistant Professor of Romance Languages

Rev. Edmund J. Hogan
Associate Professor of Theology

Rev. William H. Hohmann, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Economics

Rev. Gerald F. Hutchinson, S.J.
Associate Professor of Chemistry

Rev. William W. Kennedy, S.J.
Professor of Latin and English

Mr. Kenneth M. Kunsch
Instructor in Business

Mr. Rudolph J. Landry
Instructor in English

Rev. Peter Lanza
Instructor in Sociology

Rev. Victor Leeber, S.J.
Instructor in Spanish

Rev. Joseph M. Manning, S.J.
Associate Professor of Classical Languages and Theology

Dr. Matthew J. McCarthy
Assistant Professor of Government and History

Dr. Gerard B. McDonald
Associate Professor of Modern Languages

Rev. Thomas McGrath, S.J.
Guidance Director

Rev. T. Everett McPeake, S.J.
Associate Professor of Education

Rev. Lawrence S. Mullin, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Philosophy

Rev. Joseph W. Murphy, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Theology

Rev. John P. Murray, S.J.
Associate Professor of Mathematics

Dr. John Norman
Associate Professor of History and Government

Rev. Oliver Nickerson, S.J.
Instructor in English

Rev. John A. O'Brien, S.J.
Professor of Philosophy

Mr. Stephen J. O'Brien
Assistant Professor of Business Law

Mr. Walter Petry
Instructor in History

Mr. Arthur R. Reil, Jr.
Assistant Professor of English

Rev. James W. Ring, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Physics

Dr. Maurice E. Rogalin
Professor of Education,
Director of Teacher Training

Rev. Richard L. Rooney, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Theology

Dr. Donald J. Ross
Assistant Professor of Biology

Rev. John W. Ryan, S.J.
Professor of English

Mr. Joseph M. Simmons
Assistant Librarian

Rev. Francis A. Small, S.J.
Associate Professor of History and Government

Mr. Chester J. Stuart
Assistant Professor of German and Education

Rev. J. Christopher Sullivan, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Philosophy

Dr. James P. Vail
Assistant Professor of Sociology

Rev. Francis Torras, S.J.
Instructor in Physics and Mathematics

Rev. James A. Walsh, S.J.
Professor of French and Theology

Rev. Francis X. Wilkie, S.J.
Professor of Biology

Thomas F. Davis, M.D.
University Physician

Miss Mary Kirk, R.N.
University Nurse

CLASS OFFICERS

FRANCIS H. DOHERTY

148 Wall Street
Meriden, Connecticut

B.S.S. Government

Senior Class President; Sodality 1,2,3,4; Student Council 1,2,4; Stag 3,4; Central Connecticut Area Club 1,2,3,4; Democratic Club 2; Foreign Relations Club 2; Freshman Orientation Chairman 3; Sociology Club 2; Winter Carnival Committee 4.

STEPHEN J. KELLY

48 Ramona Avenue
Waterbury, Connecticut

B.S.S. Education

Senior Class Vice-President; Sodality 1,2,3,4; President's Advisory Board 4; Debating Society 1,2; Education Club 2,3,4; German Club 1,2; Sociology Club 1,2; Student Education Association of Connecticut, Delegate 3; Vice-President 4; Veteran's Club 3,4; Waterbury Club 1,2,3,4.

CHARLES W. WILLIAMS

24 June Avenue
Norwalk, Connecticut

B.S. Physics

Senior Class Secretary; President's Advisory Board 4; Aquinas Academy 4; German Club 1,2; Math-Physics Club 1,2,3,4; Norwalk Area Club 1,2,3,4.

ROBERT A. HUGHES

14 Stonybrook Road
Fairfield, Connecticut

B.B.A. Business

Class Secretary 4; Glee Club 3; Aquinas Academy 4; Bridgeport Area Club 2,3,4; Business Club 2; Debating Society 4; Junior Prom Committee 2,3; Winter Carnival Committee 2,3,4.

Senior Class History

It was almost noon when I first saw Xavier Hall on that fateful Autumn day in 1954. Another newcomer was standing there on North Benson Road squinting up at the building; Al, he said his name was, and as we shook hands I realized that I wasn't the only stranger here at Fairfield. There were a lot of other newcomers, too, and we were all young, tanned from the summer sun, and eager to meet the challenge of college life.

"I'm a little scared," Al confessed as we made our way into the maze of corridors, blank forms, and smiling welcomes that were our first impression of Xavier Hall. But he was smiling broadly when we emerged a little later, slightly dazed, but now officially Freshmen of Fairfield University. Still feeling a flush of excitement, we made our way down to our new kingdom, the Cafeteria, a kaleidoscope of smiling faces, friendly hand-shakes, and brightly-colored booths planned to entice young Freshmen into joining extra-curricular activities. Later Al beamed proudly.

"Guess what!" he said. "I just joined seventeen clubs, including the N.F.C.C.S.!"

"What's that?"

"I dunno, but it must be pretty important!"

And then school began, and our formal introduction to the Ratio Studiorum.

"Wow, what a history teacher I've got!" Al cried enthusiastically. "I can't pronounce his name but he's funnier than Milton Berle!"

"Don't be too sure of yourself, Buddy," I cautioned. "Wait till you get his first exam."

Well, the first exam came, and the first disillusionment. Al sat in a corner of the Cafeteria looking a little shell-shocked. "Well, how was the exam?" I asked. "Don't talk about it," he answered, a little shakily. "I'm gonna drown my troubles in a coke!"

We met many unforgettable characters that first year. English students were brain-washed by Father O'Callahan, Mr. Riel, and grey-maned Father Bonn, who played —singlehanded—Romeo, Juliet, the Nurse, and about half the population of Verona, and was terrific in every role.

Some of us made our way into the political arena: Stan Sytka, Sal Gilbertie, Fran Doherty, and Stan Bartnik were our Student Council representatives. We had our athletes, too: Ken Felsmann, Tom Callan, and Brian Rogers were scoring aces of the Frosh basketball team. And a new secret society was formed: The Birdwatchers, they were called, in whispers, and the more elite of our class, Bill Doyle, Gordie Willard, and Gerry Gingras were initiated, and assured us that it wasn't a new Masonic order, though they seemed a little bleary-eyed from the initiation ceremony.

That first year ran swiftly by, and Al and I began to settle into the ways of college life in general and Fairfield in particular. "You know," Al said to me one morning, "It's too bad Mrs. Brady is already married. I've got a crush on her—that Irish charm and that coffee. What a combination—wow!" I guess we all felt pretty much the same way, with our affections divided between Mrs. May and Mrs. Watkyns, who sort of adopted all of us. And there were opportunities in all directions. For the budding Carusos and Lanzas there was a Glee Club to compare with the finest in the country. And for those who loved controversy, well, there was the famed Blazer Issue. For some reason we picked as color fire-engine red, and Al and I were among the first to buy them. A week later we were mistaken for ushers in a Fairfield theater.

One day Al turned to me with a rather surprised expression on his face and said: "Hey! We're sophomores!"

It was true. Somehow a year and a summer had passed, and we all developed a new-found maturity and savoir-faire; some of us were smoking pipes and even wearing vests.

And—how could we forget—we were introduced to two striking members of the English department: Mr. Edmunds, a sort of intellectual Mickey Rooney, and Mr. Meaney, who seemed to be a combination of Barry Fitzgerald and Attila the Hun, and had a phobia against white bucks and students who talked like Maxie Rosenbloom.

This time we entered politics with all the enthusiasm and spirit of a rodeo, and out of the jumble of campaign posters and speeches four men emerged victorious: Bill Doyle, our first and very capable President; Paul Nagy, Vice-President; Pete McGovern, Secretary; and Howie Hickey, Treasurer. But they weren't the only politicians: Jim Masterson, Sal Gilbertie, and Fran Doherty were our Student Council representatives.

Sophomore year was filled with isolated incidents that somehow fitted together in a colorful jigsaw puzzle both scholastic and social. It was the year that Tom Squires and the entire Knights of Columbus challenged Mr. Meaney's Irish ire, and even now it's hard to say who won that battle of principles. It was the year of the glorious St. Patrick's Day Parade, when even Italian and Polish students burned with zeal for the Old Sod and tramped proudly down Fifth Avenue with Fairfield banners flying. It was the year that the Glee Club made their first recording for R.C.A. Victor, and we all agreed that they made beautiful music together. It was the year of the touching "Flowers for Father Shanahan" gesture of the resident students. And this unforgettable year drew to a close in a blaze of fellowship and camaradarie in the testimonial dinners for Mr. Meaney and Mr. Edmunds, and as Al and I stumbled joyously home, he mumbled happily, " It's been some year, hasn't it?"

But the best was yet to come. Junior year rolled in on a glowing Autumn afternoon and brought with it a crowd of nervous but eager Freshmen who brought back memories to the mature sages of the Junior Class, and our Freshman Orientation Committee, headed by Fran Doherty, stretched out a hand of welcome. The capacity crowds at Sullivan's that night assured us that our welcoming campaign had been a rousing success. But as a class we were much too busy to bask in the glory of our acomplishments. We elected Mike Rossi our President, and he proved to be a tireless worker, as did Charley Conway, our Vice-President, Bob Berardi, our Treasurer, and Jack Weiss, our Secretary.

This was the year that we all became philosophers. Father Sullivan introduced us to some chorus girls named Barbara Celarent and Darii Ferio, and Al tried unsuccessfully to organize a Suarez Fan Club, complete with beanies, membership buttons, and an autographed picture of Immanuel Kant.

The social season began in a glitter of bright lights and stardust, and culminated in a dazzling Winter Carnival weekend, in which Ralph Marcarelli and Jim Masterson subsittuted Jewish folk-dancing for the traditional ice-carvings. Ed Reynolds served as chairman for our long-awaited Junior Prom, and it was an evening well worth waiting for. Camel Quinn, the Irish charmer of the Arthur Godfrey program, entered Long Shore Country Club escorted by a red-nosed leprechaun in a Fairfield blazer. Her charming rendition of "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" was a fitting climax to an evening of music, moonglow, and just plain magic. That night all eyes were really smiling.

It was a year, too, filled with miscellaneous memories. A minor tragedy occurred when the ping-pong table disappeared from the Cafeteria, and for weeks Father Farrington roamed restlessly about the Cafeteria, seeking some outlet for his nervous energy. The last of our ideals was shattered when Mr. Riel bought a television set. Pete Baldetti's successful life at Fairfield reached a turning point when he was named Editor of the Manor, and Bill Keish and Paul Nagy received a well-deserved accolade when they were named co-editors of the Stag. There was a near riot in the Cafeteria one Friday when Mrs. Brady tried to make chowder out of Father Small's prize sailfish.

The scholastic year ended in a thrill-a-minute Comedy of Errors staged by the budding philosophers of the Junior Class, and we did our best to entertain interrogators without benefit of script or background music. Most of us succeeded.

Another summer passed and, it seemed, before we had even recovered from the rigors of our last final exams, we were starting a new year. But this time it was different. This time we were Seniors.

It was a wonderful year. We began it with a glow of pride, not only because we were Seniors, but because Fairfield had grown along with us. Canisius and Gonzaga Halls had grown up almost miraculously during the summer. The Manor and the Stag moved from the old office in Xavier to luxurious suites in Gonzaga Hall, leaving behind them poignant mementoes in the form of old coke bottles, slightly used doughnuts, assorted paper bags and cartons, and holes in the wall created by hard-headed philosophers. New officers were at the helm of our class: Fran Doherty was our President; Steve Kelly, our Vice-President; Charley Williams, our Secretary, and Bob Hughes, our Treasurer. The Student Council began another eventful year under the leadership of Bill Doyle.

Senior year sped by in a blur of social and scholastic excitement. Father Clancy and Father O'Brien introduced us to the stimulating world of Ethics; Father Mullin, replete with dry wit and deep respect for Dr. Hans Dreisch and his gang, opened up the fascinating world of Psychology to us.

Senior year was the year in which everything seemed more significant; even the little things took on a special glow: Mrs. Brady's coffee seemed more delicious, Mrs. May's smile even warmer, the Professors friendlier and wiser, the exams tougher, and even the parking lot seemed a special place, except for snowy days, when it resembled Nome, Alaska.

This was the year of Senior retreat, when Father Bonn electrified us with his recounting of Christ's passion and the significance that it held for all of us.

This year the Winter Carnival had a special magic for us, a magic created by the hard work of Chairman Emile Cote and by our own eager, receptive spirit. The Long Shore Country Club was once more the elegant setting for a dazzling formal dance set against a background of frost and ice and warmth and laughter. Jack Kelley, Chairman of the Formal, assured us a wonderful evening; and the whole weekend, too, was unforgettable, particularly the blinding snowstorm that climaxed the festivities. We all agreed that the Winter Carnival had been appropriately named.

And final exams came, a formidable obstacle, it seemed, and all the more so because these would be the last for us. We emerged victorious, somehow, and even the Senior Orals—fifteen terrifying minutes of philosophical questions and stammering answers—couldn't stop us.

Then came Senior Week, and with not only a fun-filled picnic and a memorable ball, but also a time to gather all the precious memories of days of scholastic, social, and athletic accomplishment, and just plain fun.

And then came Graduation Day in a haze of pride and triumph and sorrow, too.

After it was all over I shook hands with Al.

"So long," he said. "It's been great, hasn't it?"

"So long, Al," I said.

There was nothing else to say.

And as I drove away down North Benson Road, I looked back for a moment and I could see Xavier Hall looming above the treetops, gleaming in the sun.

And somehow, it was like leaving an old friend.

PETER R. AMEDEO

35 Burton Street
Waterbury, Connecticut

B.B.A. Business

Business Club 4; Waterbury Area Club 1,2,3,4.

FRANK E. BABYCOS

679 Courtland Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S.S. History

Spanish Club 1,2; Veterans' Club 1,2,3,4.

PETER M. BALDETTI

179 Saltonstall Avenue
New Haven, Connecticut

A.B. English

Sodality 3,4; Manor 3, Editor-in-Chief 4; Stag 1,2,3,4; New Frontiers 2,3, Editor 4; N.F.C.C.S. 3,4; Aquinas Academy 4; Classical Music Society 3; Dramatic Society 3; French Club 4; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; Italian Club 1,2; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3,4; New Haven Area Club 1,2,3,4.

ROBERT J. BANYAI

169 South Main Street
South Norwalk, Connecticut

B.S.S. History

President's Advisory Board 4; New Frontiers 3,4; Manor 4; Aquinas Academy 4; Classical Music Society 3, Secretary 4.

JOHN F. BEGG

429 Cooke Street
Waterbury, Connecticut

B.S. Biology

Sodality 2,3,4; Manor 3,4; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; International Relations Club 2,3,4; Sociology Club 2; Waterbury Area Club 1,2,3, Treasurer 4; Commencement Committee 3; Junior Week Committee 3.

ROGER J. BELIVEAU

209 Terryville Avenue
Bristol, Connecticut

A.B. History

Sodality 3,4; Aquinas Academy 4.

ROBERT S. BELLO

91 Grove Street
Stamford, Connecticut

B.S.S. Government

President's Advisory Board 4; Debating Society 1,2; Democratic Club 3,4; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; Stamford Area Club 1,2,3, Vice-President 4.

ROBERT A. BENACK

2038 32nd Street
Astoria, New York

B.S. Biology

Sodality 3,4; Manor 4; Junior Class Executive Committee; Mendel Club 2,3,4; Metropolitan Area Club 1.

ROBERT J. BERARDI

108 Melrose Avenue
Waterbury, Connecticut

B.S. Biology

Junior Class Treasurer; Glee Club Business Manager 2,3,4; Manor 4; Junior Class Executive Committee; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3,4; Mendel Club 1,2,3,4; Waterbury Area Club 1,2,3, President 4; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; Winter Carnival Committee 2,3,4; Junior Prom Committee 2,3; Junior-Senior Dance Committee 3.

CHRISTOPHER P. BOAL

14 Baker Avenue
Westport, Connecticut

A.B. English

Sodality 1,2,3,4; Manor 4; Stag 1, 2,3; New Frontiers 2,3,4; Education Club 4 ;Radio Club 1, Secretary 2; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; Winter Carnival Committee 1; Freshman Dance Committee 1.

MARON J. BONASSAR

163 Lorraine Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S. Chemistry

Chemistry Club 1,2,3,4; German Club 1,4.

RAYMOND J. BYKOWSKI

76 Cottage Street
New Haven, Connecticut

A.B. English

French Club 1,2,4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3,4; New Haven Area Club 1,2,3,4.

PHILIP F. CALCINA

621 West 172nd Street
New York, New York

A.B. English

Sodality 2,3,4; Student Council 3; Manor 3, Literary Editor 4; Stag 3; New Frontiers 4; NFCCS 2; CISL 2,3; International Relations Club 4; Debating Society 1,2,3,4; French Club 1,2,3,4; Metropolitan Area Club 1,2, 4; Senior Dance Committee 4; Freshman Orientation Committee 3.

THOMAS J. CALLAN

87-15 Britton Avenue
Long Island, New York

B.B.A. Accounting

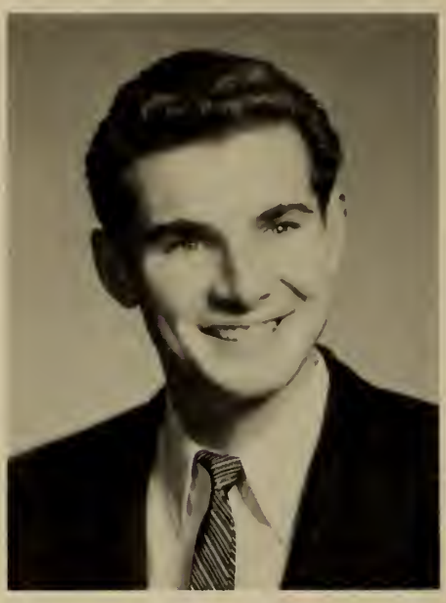
Accounting Club 3,4; Freshman Basketball 1; Business Club 1,3; Democratic Club 3,4; Italian Club 1,2; Metropolitan Area Club 1,2,3,4; Freshman Dance Committee.



SANTINE P. CAPRIA

730 East 236th Street
Bronx, New York

A.B. Sociology

Sodality 1,2, Vice-Prefect 3,4; Manor 4; New Frontiers 3,4; N.F.C.C.S. 1,2,4; International Relations Club 4; Metropolitan Area Club 1, Secretary 2,3,4; Radio Club 1,2; Sociology Club, Secretary 3, President 4; Senior Dance Committee 4.

JAMES J. CARNEY

101 Hubinger Street
New Haven, Connecticut

B.S. Biology

Glee Club 1,2,3,4; Mendel Club 1, 2,3,4; New Haven Area Club 1,2,3,4.

ROBERT F. CARROLL

10 Fairway Lane
Waterbury, Connecticut

B.S.S. Government

Stag 1,2,3,4; President, Loyola Council 4; President's Advisory Board 4; Debating Society 1,2, Vice-President 3, President 4; Democratic Club 3,4; Dramatic Society 2,3, Vice-President 4.

RAYMOND J. CARTON

21 Maplewood Drive
New Haven, Connecticut

B.S.S. Government

New Haven Club 4.

ANTHONY J. CARUSO, JR.

7 Gibson Court
South Norwalk, Connecticut

B.S. Physics

Math-Physics Club 1,2,3,4; Norwalk Area Club 1,2,3,4; Radio Club 1,2.

DOMINICK H. CERRITELLI, JR.

64 Mount Pleasant Street
Derby, Connecticut

B.S. Biology

Sodality 4; Stag 4; Aquinas Academy 4; French Club 1,2; Mendel Club 2,3,4.

ARTHUR E. CHAGNON

39 Boston Terrace
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S. Physics

Bridgeport Area Club 1,2,3,4; Math-Physics Club, Secretary 3, Vice-President 4.

JOSEPH P. CHESTER

85 Church Street
Middletown, Connecticut

B.S.S. Government

Student Council, Recording Secretary 4; Glee Club 2,3,4; Stag 3,4; President's Advisory Board 4; Track Team 1; Aquinas Academy, Publicity Director 4; Central Connecticut Area Club 1,2, Secretary-Treasurer 3,4; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; International Relations Club 3,4; Sociology Club 2; Winter Carnival Committee 1,2,3; Junior Prom Committee 1,2.

CHARLES R. CIAMPI

149 Bracewood Road
Waterbury, Connecticut

B.S.S. Economics

Business Club 1,2,4; Debating Society 1,2; Education Club 2; Waterbury Area Club 1,2,3,4; Freshman Dance Committee 1.

PETER C. CIARDIELLO

109 Elmer Avenue
Hamden, Connecticut

A.B. Government

Manor 4; Italian Club 1,2; New Haven Club 1,2,3,4; Senior Dance Co-Chairman 4.

DREW J. CLARK

Glenville Road
Glenville, Connecticut

A.B. Government

International Relations Club 3,4; Stamford-Greenwich Area Club 4.

HAROLD R. CONNELLY

310 Park Boulevard
Stratford, Connecticut

B.S. Biology

Glee Club 1,2,3,4; President's Advisory Board 3; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2,3,4; Chemistry Club 1,2; German Club 1,2; Mendel Club 1,2,3,4; Track Team 1,2,3,4.

CHARLES E. CONWAY

301 Church Hill Road
Trumbull, Connecticut

B.S.S. English

Class Vice-President 3; Student Council 4; Glee Club Manager 1,2, 3,4; Manor 4; President's Advisory Board 3; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2; Democratic Club 3,4; Mendel Club 3; Sociology Club 2; Winter Carnival Committee 3,4; Junior Prom Committee 3; Fall Dance Committee 1,2,3.

MICHAEL J. COREY

75 Deer Hill Avenue
Danbury, Connecticut

B.S.S. Government

Aquinas Academy 4; Democratic Club 3; German Club 2,3; International Relations Club 2,3; Sociology Club 2; Winter Carnival Committee 4.

LOUIS E. COTE, JR.

North Compo Road
Westport, Connecticut

B.S.S. Economics

Glee Club 3,4; Winter Carnival Chairman 4.

JOHN F. CRANE

41 Merrill Street
Waterbury, Connecticut

B.S.S. English

PATRICK J. CREHAN

383 Iranistan Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut

A.B. English

Glee Club 4; Bridgeport Area Club 4.

JOHN D. CROWLEY

62 South Street
Waterbury, Connecticut

B.S.S. English

Sodality 1,2; Democratic Club 2; Sociology Club 2; Waterbury Club 1,2,3. Vice-President 4.

JAMES F. DALY, JR.

91 Garfield Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S. Biology

Sodality 3,4; Glee Club, Manager 1,2,3,4; President's Advisory Board 3; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2; French Club 2,4; Mendel Club 2,3,4.

THOMAS J. DE LUCA

117 Shelley Street
Waterbury, Connecticut

B.S. Economics

Business Club 4; Republican Club 4; Waterbury Club 1,2,3,4; Winter Carnival Committee 4; Junior Prom Committee 3.

VINCENT DE RIENZO

463 Wilson Street
Waterbury, Connecticut

B.S.S. English

Aquinas Academy 4; Waterbury Club 1,2,3,4.

J. HARRISON DESMOND

60 Hamilton Street
New Britain, Connecticut

A.B. English

Dramatic Society 4; French Club 3,4.

DONALD W. DI GENNARO

126 Placid Avenue
Stratford, Connecticut

B.S. Biology

Sodality 1,2; Glee Club 3,4; President's Advisory Board 3; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2; Chemistry Club 2,3; German Club 1,2; Mendel Club 1,2, 3,4.

JAMES T. DOHERTY

4050 Whitney Avenue
Hamden, Connecticut

B.S.S. Government

President's Advisory Board, Chairman 4; Resident Council 3,4; New Haven Club 1,2,3,4; Winter Carnival Committee 4; Junior Prom Committee 3.

ROBERT R. DORIN

35 Summer Street
Meriden, Connecticut

B.S.S. English

Sodality 1,2, Secretary 3, Prefect 4; Glee Club 2,3; Aquinas Academy 4; German Club 1, Secretary 2, Treasurer 3; K. of C., Ignatian Council 4; Veterans Club 1,2,3,4.

JOHN J. DOUGHERTY

82 Wells Road
Wethersfield, Connecticut

B.S.S. English

THOMAS J. DOWIE

367 Windsor Avenue
Stratford, Connecticut

B.S.S. Education

Student Education Association of Connecticut, Fairfield Delegate 3; Education Club 3,4; Commencement Committee 3.

WILLIAM J. DOYLE

94 Country Club Road
Cheshire, Connecticut

B.B.A. Economics

Class President 2; Glee Club 1,2, Secretary 3,4; Campus Minstrels 1,2, 3,4; Student Council 2, Vice-President 3, President 4; Aquinas Academy 4; Central Connecticut Area Club 2,3; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3,4; Junior Prom Committee 3.

JOHN A. EARLY

11 Bishop Street
New Haven, Connecticut

B.B.A. Business

Business Club 2,3,4; French Club 1,2; New Haven Area Club 1,2,3,4.

THOMAS J. FARRELL

1203 11th Avenue
Palmetto, Florida

B.B.A. Business

Track 1,2,3,4.

THOMAS R. FARRELL

156 East Avenue
Norwalk, Connecticut

B.S.S. Economics

Democratic Club 3; International Relations Club 3; Norwalk Area Club 3.

ROBERT L. FARRINGTON

115 Merchant Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S. Chemistry

Glee Club 1,2,3,4; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2; Chemistry Club 2,34; German Club 1,4.

MARCEL R. FAUCHER

23 Gregory Boulevard
East Norwalk, Connecticut

B.B.A. Economics

Business Club 1,2,3,4; French Club 1, President 2,4; Norwalk Area Club 1,2,3, Treasurer 4.

LAWRENCE J. FAYETTE

30 Noble Street
Stamford, Connecticut

B.S.S. English

Sodality 3,4; Student Council 3,4; Manor 3, Associate Editor 4; Stag 2,3,4; N.F.C.C.S. 2,3, Senior Delegate 4; President's Advisory Board 4; Varsity Baseball 3,4; C.I.S.L. 3,4; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; K. of C., Ignatian Council 3,4; Stamford Area Club, Secretary 3.

KENNETH F. FELSMANN

54 Homestead Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S.S. History

Aquinas Academy 4; Freshman Basketball; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2,3, 4; International Relations Club 3; Math-Physics Club 3,4; Sociology Club 2; Varsity Basketball 2.

RICHARD S. FERRARO

6 Homeside Avenue
West Haven, Connecticut

B.S. Biology

President's Advisory Board 3; Chemistry Club 2; French Club 1, Treasurer 2; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3; Mendel Club 1,2,3,4; New Haven Area Club 1,2,3, Treasurer 4; Winter Carnival Committee 3; Junior Prom Committee 3.

WALTER P. FITZGERALD, JR.

811 White Plains Road
Trumbull, Connecticut

B.S. Chemistry

Chemistry Club 1,2, Secretary 3,4; German Club 1.

WALTER W. FOLEY, JR.

470 Villa Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S.S. Economics

Varsity Baseball 3; Business Club 1,2,3,4.

EDWARD J. GALLAGHER

698 Newhall Street
Hamden, Connecticut

B.B.A. Accounting

Accounting Club 3,4; Business Club 1,2,3,4; French Club 1,2; Democratic Club 3,4; New Haven Area Club 1, 2,3, Vice-President 4.

WILBUR FOMENTO

148 Court Street
West Haven, Connecticut

B.S.S. Education

Glee Club 1; Manor 3, Photography Editor 4; Stag 1,2,3; Chemistry Club 3; Education Club 1,2,3,4; Italian Club 1,2; Mendel Club 4; New Haven Club 1,2,3,4; Freshman Orientation Committee 3.

RICHARD E. GARNETT

157 Laughlin Road
Stratford, Connecticut

B.B.A. Economics

Sodality 1; French Club 2.

MARSHALL J. GIANNOTTI

57 Orange Terrace
West Haven, Connecticut

B.S.S. History

Sodality 1,2; Classical Music Society 4; French Club 1,2,3,4; International Relations Club 2,3; Italian Club 1,2; New Haven Area Club 3,4.

SALVATORE J. GILBERTIE, JR.

97 Sylvan Lane
Westport, Connecticut

B.B.A. Business

Sodality 1,2,3,4; Student Council 1, 2, Treasurer 3,4; Stag 1,2,3,4; Dramatic Society 3; Italian Club 1,2; Norwalk Area Club 3,4.

JOHN T. GILMORE

50 Walnut Street
Waterbury, Connecticut

B.S.S. English

Waterbury Area Club 1,2,3,4.

GERALD M. GINGRAS

143 North Main Street
Southington, Connecticut

B.S.S. English

Glee Club 1,2,3,4; Campus Minstrels 3,4; Manor 3, Layout Editor 4; Stag 2,3,4; President's Advisory Board 3,4; Dramatic Society 3; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3,4; Loyola Council 2; Mendel Club 3; Republican Club 3; Waterbury Area Club 1,2,3,4; Junior Prom Committee 2,3; Sophomore Dance, Chairman 2; Winter Carnival Committee 2,3,4; Commencement Committee 3.

WILLIAM D. GLOVER

Grove Street
East Berlin, Connecticut

B.S.S. Education

Confraternity of Christian Dostrine 4; Chemistry Club 2; German Club 1,2; Bridgeport Areta Club 1,2,3,4; Junior Prom Committee 3; Sophomore Dance Committee 2; Winter Carnival Committee 4.

EUGENE R. GRASSLER

23 Stiles Street
Waterbury, Connecticut

B.S. Mathematics

Aquinas Academy 4; Classical Music Society 3; Math-Physics Club 1,2, 3, Secretary 4.

RONALD P. GROSSO

561 Beechmont Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S. Physics

Aquinas Academy 4; Barsity Baseball 2; Freshman Basketball; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2; German Club 1,2; Math-Physics Club 1,2,3,4.

ROBERT HALAPIN

Killian Avenue
Trumbull, Connecticut

A.B. English

Sodality 4; Glee Club 4.

JOHN E. HALL

57 Park Avenue
Hamden, Connecticut

B.S.S. Economics

Sodality 2,3,4; Resident Student Council 4; President's Advisory Board 4; Track 2,3, Manager 4; Winter Carnival Committee 4; Manor 3,4; Stag 3,4; Mendel Club 1.

FRANCIS G. HANLEY

14 Hazel Street
Norwalk, Connecticut

B.B.A. Business

Varsity Basketball 2,3, Captain 4; Business Club 3,4; Norwalk Club 1, 2,3,4.

JOHN F. HAWKINS

10 Chestnut Street
Bethel, Connecticut

B.S.S. Economics

Business Club 1,2,3, Recording Secretary 4.

JAMES F. HOLIAN

1812 East Main Street
Waterbury, Connecticut

B.S.S. Education

Education Club 1,2,3,4; Waterbury Area Club 1,2,3,4.

EDWARD E. JOBES

100 Bliss Street
East Hartford, Connecticut

B.S.S. English

Sodality 3,4; Aquinas Academy 4; Business Club 1,4; French Club 1,2; Veterans Club 1,2,3,4.

JOHN J. KAVANAGH

75 Sherwood Place
Greenwich, Connecticut

B.B.A. Business

RICHARD E. KEARNEY

448 North Front Street
New Haven, Connecticut

B.S. Physics

President's Advisory Board 4; German Club 3,4; Math-Physics Club 2, 3,4; New Haven Club 1,2,3,4.

WILLIAM E. KEISH, JR.

238 View Street
New Haven, Connecticut

B.S.S. English

President's Advisory Board 4; Manor 3,4; Stag 2,3, Co-Editor 4; Democratic Club 3,4; International Relations Club 2,3,4; New Haven Club 2,3,4; Student News Bureau 2,3,4; Winter Carnival Committee 4; Junior Prom Committee 3.

RICHARD KEATING

Chateaux Normandy
Scarsdale, New York

B.S.S. Economics

Metropolitan Area Club 2,3,4; Spanish Club 2; Sociology Club 2,3; Tennis Team 3,4; Business Club 2,3,4.

JOHN D. KELLEY

233 Howard Avenue
New Haven, Connecticut

B.S.S. Economics

Democratic Club 2,3; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; New Haven Club 1,2,3,4; Track 1,2,3.

PATRICK T. KENNEDY

51 Kneeland Road
New Haven, Connecticut

B.B.A. Accounting

Business Club 2,3,4, Board of Directors 4, Vice President 4; Manor 4; New Haven Club 1,2,3,4, Secretary 2, Treasurer 3, President 4; N.F.C.C.S. 3,4; Winter Carnival Committee 3; Junior Prom Committee 3; Senior Executive Committee; Accounting Club 2,3,4, Board of Directors 3,4.

RICHARD E. LAPPERT

Meriden, Connecticut
48 South 3rd Street

A.B. Biology

Sodality 1,2,3,4; Glee Club 1,2,3; Connecticut Intercollegiate Student Legislature 4; Mendel Club 1,2,3,4.

DAVID J. LOUGHLIN, JR.

168 North Quaker Lane
West Hartford, Connecticut

A.B. History

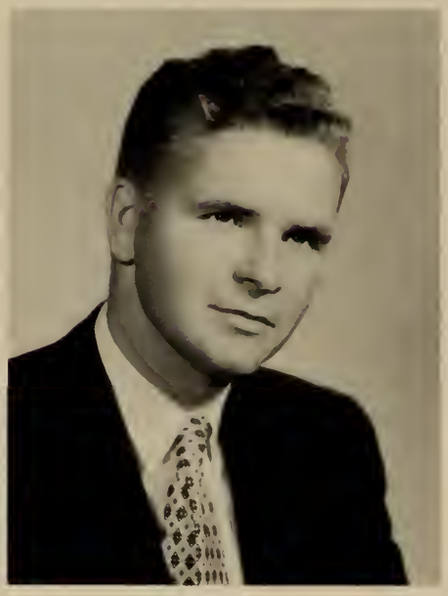
French Club 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 4; Hartford Club 3,4.



DONALD J. LOUGHMAN

18 Yarmouth Road
Bell Island

A.B. English

Dramatic Society 3,4.

ROBERT J. LUCAS

921 Hancock Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S. Physics

WALTER LUCIA

626 Congress Avenue
New Haven, Connecticut

B.S. Biology

Sodality 1; President's Advisory Board 3; French Club 1,2,3; Mendel Club 1,2,3,4.

RICHARD A. MACE

15 Locust Street
Milford, Connecticut

B.S. Biology

President's Advisory Board 3; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2; Mendel Club 1,2,3,4.

VINCENT T. MARTIN

145 Poplar Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.B.A. Accounting

President's Advisory Board 3; Accounting Club 3,4; Business Club 1,2, 3,4; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2,3,4; French Club 1,2; Junior Week Committee, Chairman 3; Winter Carnival Committee 3; Junior Prom Committee 2; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; Freshman-Sophomore Dance 1,2.

ANTHONY V. MASI

1098 Kossuth Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S. Biology

President's Advisory Board 3; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2; Chemistry Club 2; German Club 2; Mendel Club 2, Secretary 3, President 4; Junior Prom Committee 3.

FRANKLIN C. MAURI

51 Tenth Street
Derby, Connecticut

B.S. Chemistry

Chemistry Club, President 4; German Club 2,3; Math-Physics Club 2,3,4; Mendel Club 2,3,4; Valley Area Club 3,4.

JAMES A. MASTERSON

583 Broad Street
Meriden, Connecticut

B.S.S. Education

Student Council 2,3; President's Advisory Board 2,3,4; Stag 2,3,4; C.I.S.L. 2,3, Senator 4; Central Connecticut Area Club 2, Vice-President 3; Education Club 2,3,4; I.R.C. Treasurer 2,3, Vice-President 4; Student News Bureau 2,3; Veterans Club 4; Junior Prom Committee 1,3.

GEORGE F. MORAN

28 Dayton Street
New Haven, Connecticut

B.S.A. Economics

Business Club 1,2,3,4; I.R.C. 3,4; New Haven Club 1,2,3,4.

PETER R. MORANO, JR.

8 Alexander Street
Greenwich, Connecticut

B.S.S. Economics

Republican Club 3; Stamford-Greenwich Area Club 3.

J. VINCENT MORRISETTE

1270 Pembroke Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut

A.B. Education

Aquinas Academy 4; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2,3,4; Education Club 2,3,4.

BERNARD T. MULDOON

574 William Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S. Physics

Bridgeport Area Club 1; German Club 1,2; Math-Physics Club 1,2, Treasurer 3, President 4; Radio Club 3.

JOHN H. MURPHY

84 North Avenue
Natick, Massachusetts

B.S.S. Economics

President's Advisory Board 4; Basketball 1; Business Club 1,2; C.C.D. 3,4; Massachusetts Club, President 3, 4; N.F.C.C.S., Alternate Delegate 4; Track 1,2,3, Captain 4; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; Winter Carnival Committee 3.

BRIAN J. MURPHY

449 Pearl Harbor Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut

A.B. English

Sodality 1,2; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2; French Club 1,4; Classical Music Society, President 3,4; N.F.C.C.S. 2.

THOMAS J. MURRAY

339 Atlantic Street
Stamford, Connecticut

B.S. Chemistry

Manor 3,4; Stag 1,2,3,4; Chemistry Club 1,2,3,4.

PAUL J. NAGY

104 Shelton Avenue
Shelton, Connecticut

B.S.S. Economics

Sophomore Class Vice-President; Sodality 2,3,4; Glee Club 1,2,3, Vice-President 4; President's Advisory Board 3; Manor 3,4; Stag 1, Sports Editor 2,3, Editor-in-Chief 4; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3,4; N.F.C.C.S. 3,4; Valley Club 1, Secretary 2, Vice-President 3,4; Aquinas Academy 4; Junior Prom Committee 3; Commencement Committee 2,3.

ANTHONY V. NESPOLE

Burr Place
East Norwalk, Connecticut

A.B. Biology

Sodality 4; Glee Club 3,4, Bensonians 4, Campus Minstrels 3,4; Mendel Club 3,4.

FRANCIS B. O'ROURKE

1413 Hude Street
Far Rockaway, New York

B.S.S. English

Stag 3; New Frontiers 3; Aquinas Academy 4; Dramatic Society 1,2,3, President 4; Debating Society 4; Democratic Club 2,3,4; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; Veterans Club 1,2, 3,4.

DAVID J. PAPALLO

16 Springdale Avenue
Meriden, Connecticut

B.S.S. Government

Glee Club 2,3,4; Dramatic Society 3,4; Senior Stag Chairman 4; President's Advisory Board 4; Central Connecticut Area Club 2,3, Secretary-Treasurer 4; Italian Club 1,2; Sociology Club 2; Winter Carnival Committee 4; Junior Prom Committee 3.

RENALD S. PERILLO

26 Woodmont Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S.S. Economics

Bridgeport Area Club 1,2,3,4; Sociology Club 2; Italian Club 1,2,3.

DONALD N. PERUGINI

1069 West Main Street
Waterbury, Connecticut

B.S.S. English

Manor 4; Stag 4; Business Club 3,4; International Relations Club 3,4; Waterbury Area Club 1,2,3,4.

WALTER E. PLEBAN

540 Ogden Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S. Biology

Sodality 1,2; Stag 1,2; Freshman Basketball; Mendel Club 1,2,3,4; Chemistry Club 1; French Club 1,2; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2.

RICHARD A. PRETO-RODAS

370 Greenfield Avenue
Stratford, Connecticut

A.B. English

Sodality 1,2,3,4; Manor 4; New Frontiers 3,4; Aquinas Academy 4; French Club 1,2,4; Classical Music Society 3,4.

RICHARD J. PULIE

296 Sport Hill Road
Easton, Connecticut

B.S. Biology

Glee Club 1,2,3,4; President's Advisory Board 3; Mendel Club 2,3,4; French Club 2; Bridgeport Area Club 1.

RICHARD J. RAUCCI

191 First Avenue
West Haven, Connecticut

B.S.S.

French Club 1,2; New Haven Area Club 1,2,3,4; Sociology Club 2.

EDWARD W. REYNOLDS

710 Ocean Avenue
West Haven, Connecticut

B.B.A. Economics

Glee Club 1,2, Treasurer 3, President 4, Bensonians 2,3,4, Campus Minstrels 2,3,4; President's Advisory Board 3,4; Business Club 1,2; New Haven Area Club 1; Veterans Club 2, Secretary 3,4; Winter Carnival Committee 1,2,3; Junior Pr omCommittee 3; Freshman-Sophomore Dance Committee 1,2.

ROBERT A. ROCCO

Neenan Lane
Orange, Connecticut

B.S.S. Education

Education Club 3,4; French Club 3; New Haven Club 3,4.

BRIAN R. ROGERS

18 Crestfield Avenue
Danbury, Connecticut

B.B.A. Economics

Business Club 3,4; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; Freshman Basketball; Bridgeport Area Club 3,4.

THOMAS J. ROSATI

196 Goldenrod Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S.S. English

French Club 1,2; Sociology Club 2; Freshman Basketball; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2,3,4.

MICHAEL A. ROSSI

53 Burton Street
Waterbury, Connecticut

B.S. Biology

Junior Class President; Sodality 4; Student Council 3; Glee Club Accompanist 1,2,3,4; Manor 3; Mendel Club 1,2,3,4; Chemistry Club 2; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; Junior Senior Dance Committee 3; Junior Prom Committee 2,3; Winter Carnival Committee 2,3; Waterbury Area Club 1,2,3,4.

FRANCIS P. RUSSO

1768 Litchfield Turnpike
Woodbridge, Connecticut

B.S. Physics

Math-Physics Club 2,3; Radio Club 1,2; New Haven Club 1,2,3,4.

JAMES B. RUSSELL

1 St. Marks Place
Huntington, Long Island, New York

A.B. English

Sodality 3,4; Manor 4; Stag 1,2; N.F.C.C.S. 1,2; Aquinas Academy, President 4; Debating Society 1,2,3; French Club 1,2,3,4; Winter Carnival Committee 3,4; Junior Prom Committee 2,3; Metropolitan Area Club 1,2.

JAMES J. RYAN

15 Brooklawn Avenue
Stamford, Connecticut

B.S. Physics

Math-Physics Club 2,3,4; Stamford Area Club 3.

ROBERT C. RYBACK

700 Fairfield Woods Road
Fairfield, Connecticut

B.S.S. Economics

International Relations Club 2,3,4; Democratic Club 2, Secretary 3,4; Bridgeport Area Club 1; Business Club 4.

ROBERT J. SABO

70 Princeton Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S.S. Government

International Relations Club 2,3,4; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2,3,4; Democratic Club President 2,3.

PAUL R. ST. PIERRE

84 Priscilla Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S.S. Economics

Bridgeport Area Club 2,3,4; French Club 2.

ROBERT M. SCHUMACHER

30 High Street
Ansonia, Connecticut

B.S. Biology

Sodality 1,2,3,4; President's Advisory Board 3; Glee Club 1,2,3, Treasurer 4; Aquinas Academy 4; French Club 1; Valley Club, 1, Treasurer 2,3, President 4.

ANTHONY F. SAVIGNANO

38 Coram Avenue
Shelton, Connecticut

B.S.S. Education

Freshman Basketball; Education Club 3,4; Valley Club 1,2,3,4.

VINCENT C. SCULLY

39 Clovercrest Road
Wethersfield, Connecticut

B.S.S. History

Sodality 3,4; President's Advisory Board 4; Hartford Area Club 1,2,3; Senior Dance Committee 2,3, Co-Chairman 4; Winter Carnival Committee 3,4.

JAMES A. SEDENSKY

120 Sherwood Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S. Biology

Aquinas Academy 4; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2; Mendel Club 2,3,4; Math-Physics Club 4.

NESTOR W. SHUST

110 Grant Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S. Chemistry

Chemistry Club 1,2,3, Vice-President 4; German Club 1,2, Secretary 3, President 4; Mendel Club 4.

EDMOND J. SKINSKI

57 Hillside Avenue
Meriden, Connecticut

A.B. English

President's Advisory Board 4; Manor 3,4; Central Connecticut Area Club 1,2,3,4; French Club 1,2,4; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3,4; Varsity Baseball 2,3,4.

THOMAS E. SQUIRES

4652 East 19th Street
Tucson, Arizona

B.S. Biology

Confraternity of Christian Doctrine 3; President's Advisory Board 3,4; Manor 3,4; French Club 1,2; K. of C. 2,3, Treasurer 4; Mendel Club 1,2, 3,4; New Haven Area Club 1,2, Secretary 3,4; Winter Carnival Committee 3.

WILLIAM E. STRADA, JR.

8 Hunter Street
Old Greenwich, Connecticut

B.B.A. Economics

Mendel Club 3; Stamford-Greenwich Area Club 2,3.

WILLIAM F. TAGG

73 Atwater Street
West Haven, Connecticut

B.S.S. Economics

President's Advisory Board 4; Manor 3; Baseball Manager 3,4; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; International Relations Club 1,2,3,4; New Haven Club 1,2,3,4; Sociology Club 2.

VINCENT M. TEDONE

359 85th Street
Brooklyn, New York

B.S. Biology

Mendel Club 2,3, Vice-President 4; Metropolitan Area Club 2, Treasurer 3, President 4.

CARL J. TESTA

10 Lenox Street
East Haven, Connecticut

B.S.S. Economics

Sodality 2,3; Business Club 2,3,4; New Haven Area Club 1,2; Veterans Club 2,3,4; Winter Carnival Committee 4.

ROBERT J. THIBAULT

696 Huntington Road
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S. Physics

Glee Club 1,2,3,4, Campus Minstrels 3,4; Aquinas Academy 4; German Club 1,2; Math-Physics Club 1,2,3,4; Radio Club 3.

ROBERT M. TOMASKO

87 Kent Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S. Physics

Glee Club 2,3,4; Bridgeport Area Club 1; German Club 1,2; Math-Physics Club 1,2,3,4.

DOMINIC A. TROPEANO

6 Belden Place
Norwalk, Connecticut

B.B.A. Economics

Sodality 3,4; Business Club 3; Italian Club 1,2; Norwalk Area Club 1,2,3,4.

JOSEPH A. VINCITORIO

369 Robinhood Road
Waterbury, Connecticut

B.S. Biology

Sodality 3,4; Mendel Club 2,3,4; Veterans Club 3,4; Waterbury Area Club 3,4.

RICHARD T. WARFLE

51 Alexander Drive
Bridgeport, Connecticut

A.B. English

Sodality 1,2,3,4; Manor Art Editor 4; Stag 1, Art Editor 2,3; Bridgeport Area Club 1; Classical Music Society 3; C.I.S.L. 2,3; N.F.C.C.S. 1,2,3; Senior Dance Committee.

LEO J. WATERS

3 Hampton Road
Port Washington, New York

B.S.S. Economics

Business Club 3,4; Metropolitan Area Club 3,4; Varsity Baseball 2,3,4.

HANS F. WEIDIG

Lake Avenue
Greenwich, Connecticut

B.S.S. Economics

Glee Club 1,2,4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 4; Radio Club 1,2; Winter Carnival Committee 4.

GORDON G. WILLARD

31 Elder Street
Milford, Connecticut

B.B.A. Business

President's Advisory Board 4; Manor, Assistant Business Manager 4; Bridgeport Area Club 3; Business Club 1,2,3,4; Math-Physics Club 3,4; Tennis Team 3, Captain 4; Sophomore Dance Committee 2; Junior Prom Committee 3; Winter Carnival Committee, Assistant Chairman 4.

JOHN M. WEISS

101 Somerset Avenue
Fairfield, Connecticut

A.B. Mathematics

Junior Class Secretary; Student Council 4; Manor 3, Business Manager 4; Graduation Committee 2,3; Freshman Orientation Committee 3; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2, Secretary 3,4; Winter Carnival Committee 1,2, 3,4; Junior Prom Committee 1,2,3; Math-Physics Club 4; President's Advisory Board 3,4.

CHARLES A. WINANS

East King Street
Danbury, Connecticut

B.S.S. Education

MAURICE F. YAGGI, JR.

43 Glen Terrace
Stamford, Connecticut

B.S. Chemistry

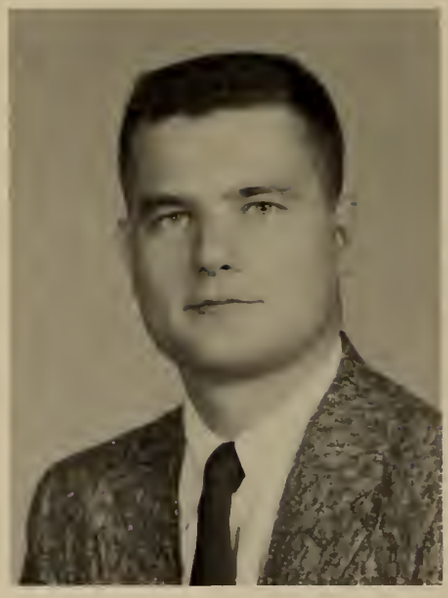
Chemistry Club 1,2, Treasurer 3,4; German Club 1,2,4.



JOHN F. YOUNG

Grumman Hill Road
Wilton, Connecticut

B.S.S. History

International Relations Club 1,2,3,4; Stag 3,4; Business Club 3,4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3,4; Norwalk Area Club 3,4.

STEPHEN J. ZELLE

316 Stratfield Road
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S.S. Sociology

Glee Club 1,2,3,4; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2.

RICHARD S. ZYSK

664 Laurel Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut

B.S.S. Economics

Bridgeport Area Club 2,3; Business Club 3,4; Track Team 1,2,3,4.

CLUBS

The Sodality of Our Lady

The trademark of the Sodality of Our Lady of Fairfield is an eloquent statement of the purpose and spiritual function of the Society: "Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam".

Inspired by this motto, and under the special patronage of Our Lady, Fairfield Sodalists work to effect the three-fold purpose of the Sodality; sanctification of self, the sanctification of others, and thinking with the Church. This means an intensified effort to practice the prescribed daily spiritual exercises which result in an overflow of Apostolic endeavor.

Afte a one year probation period, the Sodalists make a perpetual act of consecration to the Blessed Virgin Mary. As Sodalists, they attend weekly meetings and work in closely organized committees.

A list of the Sodality's spiritual accomplishments in its brief existence here at Fairfield is an impressive one. Work is done on campus to spread devotion to the Sacred Heart by encouraging students to join the Apostleship of Prayer and to attend a monthly Holy Hour in preparation for First Fridays. A special committee works to increase devotion to Our Lady by daily recitation of the Rosary, while C.T.S. Committee makes Catholic pamphlets and periodicals readily available to the student body. A Liturgy Committee provides Mass servers and sacristans for daily Mass, and the special Missions Committee conducts a weekly mite box collection for the foreign missions as well as obtaining pledges to offer Mass and Holy Communion for the success of the missions.

The Sodality also publishes its own monthly paper, the "Flos Campi". Days of Recollection are sponsored, and there is an annual reception of candidates.

Among the special annual events are a Mass of the Eastern Rite, the Novena of Grace to St. Francis Xavier, and a closed retreat.

An unusually dedicated group of Sodalists work with deaf mutes, providing a recreation period followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and a short sermon in sign language. Also, to assist the parishes in the Fairfield area, the C.C.D. Committee sends out a number of Sodalists who instruct high school students in Christian doctrine classes.

More than any other organization on campus, the Sodality is an integral and important part of Catholic college life. The Sodality belongs to Fairfield, just as Fairfield belongs to Our Lady.

"AD JESUM PER MARIAM."

First Row, left to right: P. Kane, R. Harper, J. Daly, R. Palazij, W. Margiotta, F. Marcellino. Second Row: P. Baldetti, S. Gilbertie, P. Waide, A. Bosco, R. Dorin, R. Lappert, J. Croake, J. Redgate, F. Doherty. Third Row: L. Fayette, R. Schumacher, P. Negre, R. O'Keefe, E. Skinski, E. Jobes, J. Vincitorio, R. Warfle, M. Mullin, P. Cafferty, S. Kelly, R. Preto-Rodas, R. Benack. Fourth Row: W. Gallagher, D. Cerritelli, R. Kaulbach, J. Seery, D. Sullivan, R. Cummings, J. Wood, L. Washburn, A. Nespole, W. Naedele, J. Begg, J. O'Connell, J. Hall, P. Shivell.

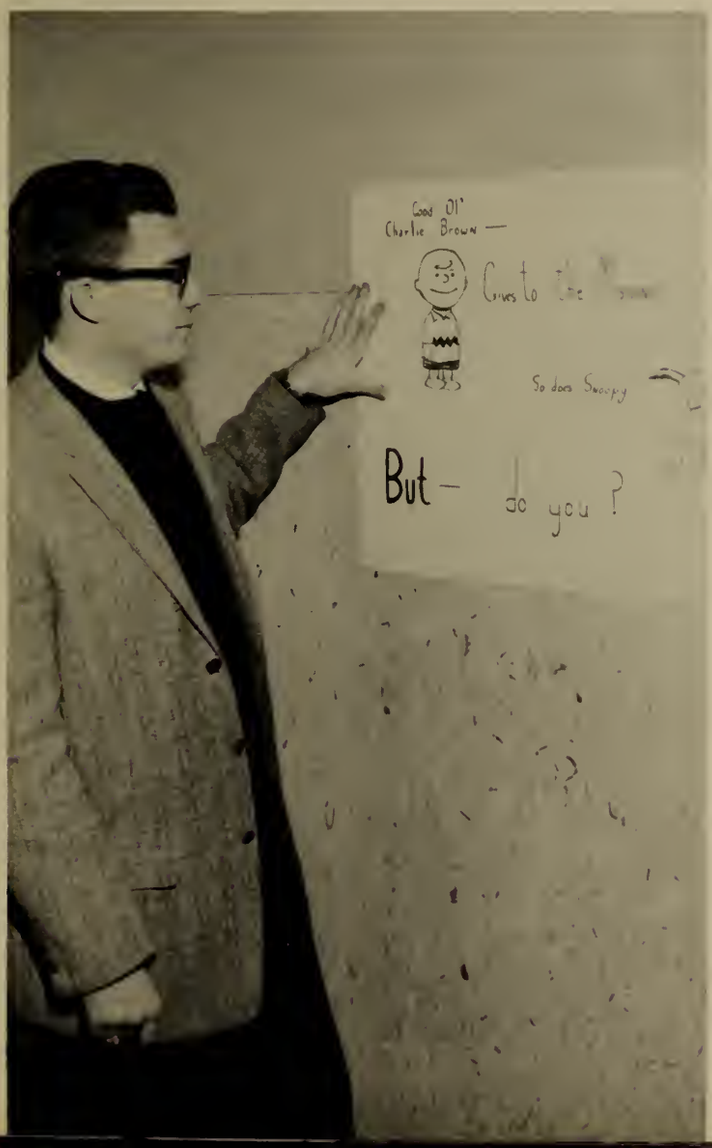
Sodalists at Mass.

Rev. Joseph W. Murphy, S.J., Sodality Moderator
Santine Capria, Vice-Prefect

. . . Corpus Domini Nostri Jesu Christe . . .

. . . Introibo Ad Altare Dei . . .

It's a genuine Warfle.



Moment of meditation.

The Student Council

The Student Council is a deliberative and executive board consisting of twenty-three members, each of whom is elected to a seat on the Council by the students of his respective class. Its purpose is to act as a mediation board between the student body and the administration and as a regulator of all college activities. The Council determines the policies of the Student Association and forms such rules as it deems necessary to properly execute these policies, thereby setting the standard and scope of operation for all student organizations.

During the academic year of 1957-1958, under the capable guidance of its moderator, Rev. Richard L. Rooney, S.J., and led by its competent president, William Doyle, the Council successfully grappled with and solved the numerous new problems arising from an added classroom building and a record student enrollment.

Through the combined efforts of its moderator, its officers, its committees and all its members, the Student Council is able to operate and function in such a successful manner each year that it is recognized by the administration, the faculty, and by the students as the most important non-spiritual student organization on campus.

William Doyle, President of the Student Council

First Row, left to Right: F. Doherty, J. Chester, W. Doyle, B. Boland, R. Healy, C. Conway. Second Row: R. Harper, L. Fayette, J. Weiss, R. Kaulbach, G. Willard, W. Lavery, J. Croake.

The Council in action.

"I'll raise you two."

"When that Aprille with her shoures soote . . ."

"Chic Chicetti . . . Hmmm . . ."

"Let's see . . . Forty-five miles to New Rochelle . . ."

This year the Student Council—a touch of Democracy amid the disciplined rigors of college life—managed to achieve the unusual as well as the usual. Beginning the year with the traditional ritual of collecting the Student Tax, the Council quickly turned to solving parking problems on campus, revising the Student Government Constitution, and taking steps to correlate and give impetus to the campus organizations. These and other knotty problems were wrangled over, discussed, and, as far as possible, solved. For their work and tolerance in a difficult and rather thankless job, the Council members merit the applause of the entire student body.

"And when I try to collect the money, they laugh at me."

"And we raised enough money to send one worthy Jesuit to Bermuda . . ."

President's Advisory Board

First Row, left to right: S. Gilbertie, L. Fayette, J. Masterson, F. Doherty, J. Doherty, V. Scully, S. Kelly, R. Kearney. Second Row: T. Squires, R. Banyai, D. Papallo, P. Calcina, E. Skinski, J. Weiss, W. Keish, R. Bykowski, E. Reynolds, J. Chester. Third Row: C. Williams, E. Galagher, F. O'Rourke, R. Carroll, R. Carton, P. Kennedy, J. Hall, G. Moran, G. Willard.

Junior Class Officers

Left to Right: L. Kelly, R. Healy, J. Maher, R. O'Keefe.

Sophomore Class Officers

Left to Right:
J. Fleming,
J. McNamara,
R. Lyons.

First Row, left to right: G. Gelston, G. O'Keeffe, S. Kristofak. Second Row: B. Hickey, C. McCann, R. Carroll, T. Ryan, T. De Benedetto.

The Resident Council

The Resident Council is convinced that in great measure the student's real education for mature and intelligent life is achieved outside the classroom, in his association with his fellow students and the faculty. Thus, every resident student is given the opportunity to exercise initiative and potential leadership through participation in the Council's legislative activities.

Among the Council's achievements is the Christmas spirit manifested by music played on campus loudspeakers, seasonal decorations on the buildings, and a gala Christmas party. In the field of sports, the Council spearheaded the enthusiasm for intramurals by awarding trophies to the winning teams. Most important, the Council has also sponsored Communion Breakfasts and spiritual talks by members of the faculty. In the social sphere, the Council has sponsored dances and socials on campus and encouraged resident students to participate in student activities.

As a mediation board between the students and the administration, the Resident Council has brought to a successful culmination its greatest year. Under President Bob Carroll, it has handled its problems smoothly and effectively, laying the groundwork for future Councils.

Grand Vizier and attendants.

First Row, left to right: C. Cofini, J. Bigham, R. Garofalo, A. Nespole, E. Reynolds, P. Jones, D. Lupo, M. Rossi, F. Sassano, W. Doyle, Mr. S. Harak, R. O'Keefe, L. Kelly, J. Luciano, J. Chester, S. Ryan, S. Dempsey, E. Quinn, J. Monahan, J. Zelinski. Second Row: F. Marcellino, J. Masi, P. Cafferty, M. Mullin, B. Crisafi, G. Rouleau, J. Lessing, F. Feehan, D. Comcowich, R. Palazij, E. Kane, L. Esparo, A. Catalano, R. Thibault, R. Tomasko, R. Schumacher, E. Donovan, R. Farrington, J. Kelly. Third Row: M. Nespole, R. Halapin, J. Reboli, S. Kristofak, J. Hudak, W. Scully, C. Smith, C. Skapczynski, J. Annunziata, A. La Bella, J. Zelle, B. MacDonald, J. Carney, A. Neuman, M. Moran, R. Bitar, G. Storm, P. Cook, R. Lucas, G. Baker, E. Cote, G. Gingras, W. Curley. Fourth Row: W. Pellechia, W. Beliveau, W. Corriero, P. Nagy, J. O'Connell, C. Lops, P. Crehan, T. Maddin, S. Zelle, W. Cronin, D. Gannon, T. Callan, G. Nalowic, J. Mudric, W. Allen, M. James, T. Skane, E. O'Brien, R. Albee, H. Connelly, R. Harper, R. Pulie.

Mr. Simon Harak, Director.

The Glee Club

In any young school, as many organizations as possible are needed to help spread its name. Fairfield University is no exception. That its name has been spread across the country, and even across the continent, is now evident, as we survey our many new buildings and our enlarged student body, culled from an ever-enlarging geographical area. Chief among our school's ambassadors is its ten-season-old Glee Club, which has risen from an enthusiastic group of forty voices making four or five appearances in western Connecticut each year to an ensemble of eighty-five, replete with a specialty group, the Campus Minstrels, and a barbershop quartet, the Bensonians. It has pleased listeners in Boston, New York, and, in general, most of southern New England and New York State. Its current schedule includes an invitation to the Collegiate Competition at Scranton, Pennsylvania. The number of concerts has grown to the average of eighteen a season. The quality of its presentations is unquestioned, as it has received countless commendations which range to "proficiency on a strictly professional level". Among its laurels are the New England championship in the 1954 Competition, held by the Bensonians and the Campus Minstrels. It has made two long-playing recordings on the R.C.A. label. Further, it was chosen to open the 1954 "Pops" season at Carnegie Hall. In all, its path has led constantly upward.

A Glee Club, though, must be more than a group of men who enjoy singing together. There must be a vital force which unifies it and directs its talent and enthusiasm. This force is personified in Mr. Simon Harak, its director, and Father John P. Murray, S.J., its moderator.

Rev. John P. Murray, S.J., and Paul Nagy.

Left to Right: S. Dempsey, M. Rossi, Mr. Simon Harak, W. Doyle.

That's a lot of bull.

The Bensonians: "Have you tried Wheaties?" Left to Right: E. Reynolds, A. Nespole, F. Sassano, W. Curley.

Every one a star.

Glee Club Officers: Left to Right: P. Nagy, R. Schumacher, F. Marcellino, Mr. Simon Harak, E. Reynolds.

It has been Mr. Simon Harak who, not content with a mere group of pleasant voices blending well together, has made the Glee Club communicate a bit of itself to every audience listening to it. Using as his chief tool an untiring desire to be best and a deep knowledge of music and stage sense, Mr. Harak has pleased not only audiences and critics, but, together with Father Murray, has developed a group of young men with poise and dedication as well as talent.

It is this poise and dedication which make Fairfield's voices that "little bit better"; and it is Father Murray who is behind the total production. It is he who holds together the first arrangements for the season in early production, he who conducts the business affairs of the club, he who starts to arrange all over again the public relations of each concert, and he who starts to ararnge all over again when the last concert is done.

Not one of the graduating members of the Glee Club will ever forget these men and their inspiring example.

Managers managing.

Are you sure the Pennsylvanians started this way?

International Relations Public Affairs Club

The International Relations-Public Affairs Club serves as the co-ordinating organization of all the political clubs on the campus. This club emerged as the result of the affiliation of the Public Affairs Forum and the International Affairs Club, up until 1955, two distinct organizations.

Since the reorganization, the P.A.-I.R.C. has channeled the activities of the minor political clubs and coalesced their separate activities into a more unified pattern. The P.A.-I.R.C. also sponsors many interesting lectures, debates, and panel discussions which otherwise would have been limited to narrower audiences of particular clubs. It is in this ways that greater interest is stimulated in Public as well as International Affairs.

First Row, left to right: A. Emmanuelli, J. Sullivan, J. Masterson, R. Hirtle, R. Richards, J. Croake, R. Pelton. Second Row: J. Guman, B. Luckart, W. Gallagher, V. Babuscio, W. Lavery, J. Breen. Third Row: G. Hill, B. Boland, M. James, L. Washburn, D. Sullivan, R. Kaulbach.

First Row, left to right: J. Masterson, L. Fayette, R. Kaulbach, W. Lavery, J. Croake. Second Row: J. Breen, M. James, D. Sullivan, L. Washburn, R. Healy, R. Richards, T. Morrison.

C. I. S. L.

The Connecticut Intercollegiate Student Legislature is an organization in which the students from various colleges participate in a mock assembly, thus gaining close insight into the workings of government. At this mock session the culmination of twelve months' preparation is realized; and if laying the groundwork for the passage of these bills is a difficult task, it is also a rewarding one.

There are many executive positions on the C.I.S.L. to be filled by the students, and in the course of the year these delegates attend executive council meetings at the various colleges throughout Connecticut.

First Row, left to right: C. Conway, B. Luckart, A. Emmanuelli, J. Guman, W. Lavery, J. Sullivan, W. Keish, R. Gerrity. Second Row: E. Zadravec, T. Roache, R. Devine, P. Guerin, R. Richards, W. Gallagher. Third Row: W. Naedele, G. Hill, R. Healy, B. Boland, T. Monks.

Democratic Club

The Democratic Club, now completing its second year at Fairfield University, has become one of the most active extra-curricular activities on campus. As a highlight of the year and in keeping with its policy of taking an active interest in local politics, the club sponsored a talk by Mayor Samuel Tedesco. It is through such events as this that the Democratic Club hopes to encourage young voters to take an active interest in politics and public affairs.

First Row, left to right: J. Breen, M. James, D. Sullivan, R. Hirtle, R. Pelton. Second Row: J. Croake, W. Allen, V. Babuscio, L. Washburn, G. McGauley, R. Kaulbach, T. Morrison, J. Knobelsdorff.

Republican Club

The policies of government are a vital influence on the interests and opportunity of American youth. The students of Fairfield University can make a contribution to sound and good government for tomorrow's society through education and actual participation in democratic processes.

For this purpose the Collegiate Republican Club was formed in 1956. Among its man activities were a mock election on campus and numerous political lectures.

Ignatian Council, Knights of Columbus

The Ignatian Council was founded in 1956 by Father T. Everett McPeake, S.J., Mr. Robert Pitt, and John Flaherty and Paul Check of the class of 1957. The response to a campus unit of the Knights was instantaneous. The first class of over forty men was initiated in April of that year; since then, membership has soared to over one hundred. The Council has further received distinction through awards via the national magazine Columbia.

The Council's activities have been varied and successful, as evidenced by a look at the record. Under the leadership of Father McPeake and Grand Knight Randy Harper, two blood donation drives have been conducted in the past year, both going "over the top". In addition, a dance, an essay contest, and a Christmas party for orphans of the New Haven area were sponsored, followed by a Day of Recollection on campus. Also, in the field of spiritual activity, the first Sunday of each month has been designated Communion Sunday for all members.

As life at Fairfield has shown us the means of developing the whole man, it is through the Knights of Columbus that Fairfield men further Catholic fraternity in all facets of life.

First Row, left to right: R. Callahan, R. Shepard, R. Capobianco, J. McNamara, W. Margiotta, R. Bykowski, P. Nagy, W. Lavery, J. Scanlon, J. Redgate, M. Dee, F. Doherty. Second Row: L. Di Giulio, R. Cummings, F. Marcellino, J. Ferrando, R. Harper, Rev. T. E. McPeake, S.J., D. Genga, S. Poor, T. Squires, D. Drongoski. Third Row: P. Baldetti, R. Berardi, E. Donovan, L. Fayette, L. Parent, R. Ferraro, W. Carreiro, P. Cafferty, R. Lyons, J. Cavalieri, F. Sullivan, G. Gingras, E. Skinski, J. Tine, M. Mowad, W. Pellescia, R. Guagnini, L. Kelly, W. Curley, W. Doyle, D. Zucco. Fourth Row: R. Kaulbach, F. Connors, T. Sharlow, J. Kelly, J. Boesch, E. Gallagher, J. Early, D. Toomey, R. Carton, G. Moran, E. Monks, G. McGauley, P. Kennedy, R. Devine, J. Moran, G. Grady, J. Toal.

First Row: P. Baldetti, R. Grosso, J. Chester, R. Hughes, Rev. J. Donoghue, S.J., R. Preto-Rodas, R. Banyai, W. Doyle. Second Row: J. Sedensky, P. Nagy, C. Williams, R. Thibault, K. Felsmann, R. Beliveau, D. Cerritelli, R. Schumacher, J. Corey.

Aquinas Academy

Under the careful and reliable moderation of Father John D. Donoghue, S.J., the Aquinas Academy of Fairfield University continued in its fourth successful year as an organization dedicated to the development of philosophical talents. The eager philosophers of proven ability gathered early in the academic year to elect their officers and decide upon an appropriate philosophical theme which would provide both intellectual stimulation and challenge to their eager desire to search for and acquire the truth.

James Russell was elected President of the Academy. Other officers were Richard Preto-Rodas, Vice-President; Robert Hughes, Secretary; and Joseph Chester, Publicity.

Because of the topic's current significance, the Academicians centered their interests and discussions around the various concepts of the Natural Law, past and present. With keen intellectual analysis and mutual contribution the young philosophers plunged into the depths of the Natural Law and emerged with well-gathered concepts of the Law with regard to its definition, interpretation, and evaluation. In honor of St. Thomas, the Angelic Doctor and patron of the Academy, the scholars presented, in the form of a symposium, the fruits of their philosophical labors to the assembled student body. Here the Academicians took pride in their accomplishment, – accomplishment of their efforts "For the Elaborate Sculptoring of Truth".

Rev. John P. Donoghue, S.J., Moderator, and James Russell, President of Aquinas Academy.

N.F.C.C.S.

Lawrence Fayette, Senior Delegate.

The National Federation of Catholic Students represents over 200,000 students throughout the United States. Its primary end is to provide in service training for Catholic leaders, that they might serve their community more effectively. The training is given as a result of the Federation's efforts in Christianizing and co-ordinating the co-curricular activities on college campuses.
The Federation is also a service organization consisting of a group of commissions whose duty it is to conduct workshops and to disseminate to campus clubs material designed to foster the intellectual, spiritual, and social development of the student. The subject matter is diversified, ranging from Liturgy and Mariology to Industrial Relations and Inter-Racial Justice.

Fairfield University directs two of the more active commissions: Family Life and Forensics. In recent years the Forensics Commission has been host to a Regional Forensics Festival which has drawn debators and contestants from the twenty-five colleges constituting the New England region. Fairfield's campus unit has brought much prestige to the University through its constant activity in National and Regional policy.

First Row, left to right: P. Baldetti, P. Kane, R. Harper, F. Marcellino, L. Fayette, J. Croake, R. Shepard, D. Zucco. Second Row: W. Doyle, W. Foley, P. Nagy, R. Lyons, E. Zadravec, D. Barrett, D. Genga. Third Row: M. James, J. Kelly, L. Washburn, D. Sullivan, C. McCann.

First Row, left to right: A. Greer, R. Bykowski, F. O'Rourke, W. Margiotta, R. Varroll, K. Bergen, L. Emmanuelli, R. Hughes. Second Row: P. Calcina, G. Moran, J. Early, R. Carton, P. Kennedy, E. Gallagher, R. Richards, R. Lyons.

The Bellarmine Debating Society

The Debating Society has proved to be one of the most active and successful groups on campus, embarking upon a venture which has made the name of Fairfield known in "Ivy League" circles throughout the country. Some of the colleges and universities successfully debated on the new and radically changed schedule were Harvard, Boston College, the University of Connecticut, Yale, West Point, and Columbia.

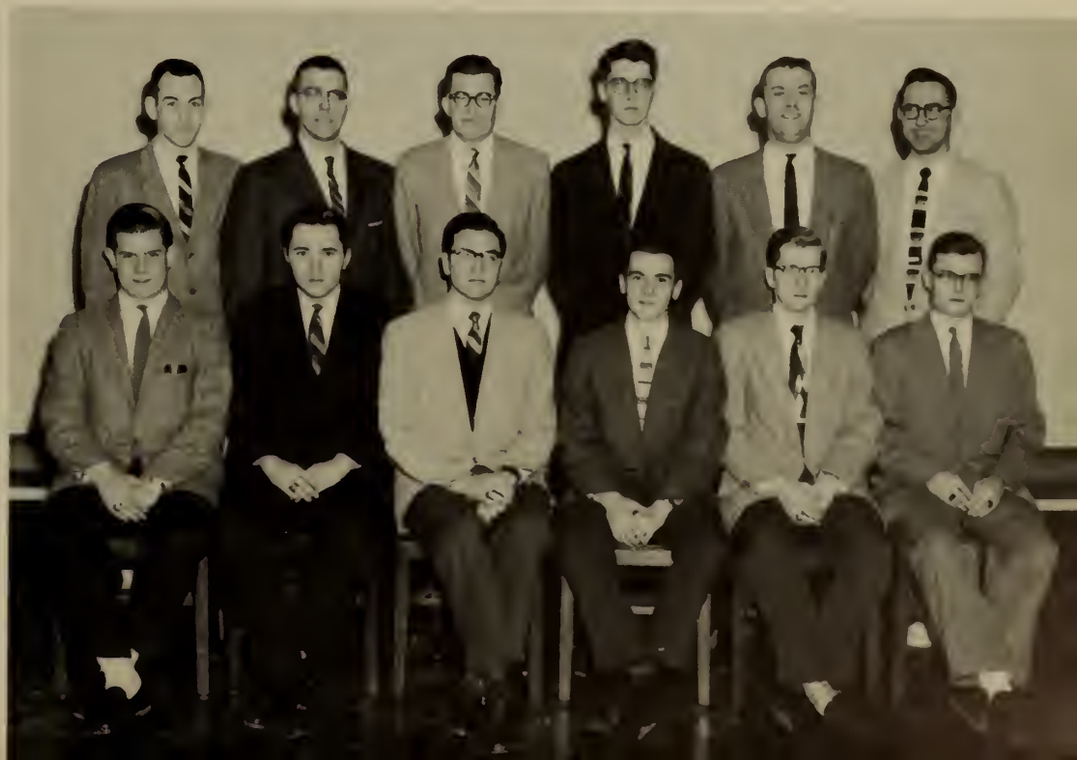
A three day tournament in which 26 leading schools throughout the country attended was also held for the first time on the Fairfield campus. An annual event of the Society is a public debate conducted before the Freshmen and Sophomore classes. The speaker judged best by a board of faculty members is awarded a prize at Commencement ceremonies in June.

New Frontiers

The goals of "New Frontiers", Fairfield's literary magazine, were succinctly stated in its first issue in the Spring of 1954: "NEW FRONTIERS is a magazine. By that, of course, we do not necessarily mean that it is illiterate, but rather that in days when even The Saturday Review of Literature has become merely The Saturday Review, we feel that a broader scope of interest is valuable and demanded . . . This magazine, which we like to consider as a bright star on the horizon, represents the thinking and achievements of all the departments of the University."

To offer a suitable outlet for the literary talents of its students and to cultivate in its readers a discriminating literary taste are no small accomplishments; but at the hands of Rev. John L. Bonn, S.J., the Moderator, and Editor Peter Baldetti, "New Frontiers" achieved an outstanding year in both regards.

First Row, left to right: J. Chester, P. Calcina, R. Preto-Rodas; P. Baldetti, R. Banyai, C. Boal. Second Row: L. Fayette, W. Keish, R. Warfle, F. O'Rourke, G. Gingras, W. Pleban.



Kukla, Fran, and Sully.

The Stag

In its tenth year of operation, the STAG has grown considerably since its obscure origin as the FULCRUM, a 1947 mimeographed newspaper which reported the events of Fairfield's first class. The STAG is now published bi-monthly in a sleek, conventional format with an approximate circulation of 1200.

The year 1957-1958 was a period of transition for the STAG in more ways than one. It was a period which saw a program of expansion under the direction of its editors, Paul Nagy and William Keish, in order to keep abreast with the expansion of the entire university. Assisting in this overall operation to give to the student body a wider range of news coverage were the departmental editors: Richard Cummings, News; William Lavery, Features; Lawrence Lessing, Sports; Robert Kaulbach, Business Manager; Salvatore Gilbertie, Exchange Editor; Philip Swanson, Make-Up Editor.

In the fall, the STAG left its old office in the basement of Xavier Hall in favor of the modern facilities of Gonzaga Hall, and the bright new surroundings seemed to bring new vitality to the staff. The office bustles with the clatter of typewriters the day that copy is due. After the initial proof-reading is completed, the copy is rushed to the printer's where the galley sheets will be prepared in a few days. A second proof-reading and make-up of the pages in the office is followed by a second journey to the printer's where the final step of publishing is begun. The day before publication is spent settling details and giving the paper a final proof-reading. Finally the completed STAG is published and distributed, and over a thousand students – including wearied editors – can sit back and enjoy an issue filled with campus news, national items, special features, and "controversial" articles.

First Row, left to right: P. Swanson, R. Cummings, R. Kaulbach, W .Keish, P. Nagy, W. Lavery, L. Lessing, S. Gilbertie. Second Row: C. Boal, J. Chester, P. Waide, L. Fayette, E. Chopski, R. Lyons, R. Gerrity, W. Margiotta, W. Fomento, A. Greer, P. Baldetti. Third Row: G. Gingras, J. Cavalieri, F. O'Rourke, T. Monks, W. Naedele, L. Washburn, A. Funk, J. Hall, R. Carroll, W. Pelleschia, T. Callan.

"And the only thing we missed was your war stories."

"You call this a newspaper?"

In February of 1958, the STAG, its editors and staff members along with moderator Father Sullivan, held its first annual banquet at Rudy's Steakhouse in Fairfield, a fitting climax to a year of hard work and exceptional accomplishment.

"I wish Ima Chooch would write in English!"

The Manor

PETER BALDETTI
Editor-in-Chief

When Class President Mike Rossi appointed Pete Baldetti Editor of the Manor, he knew the job would be a difficult one; and if he had any doubts, all he need do is ask this now-old man (gone forever is the bright cheerful glow of youth) and, after the nervous tremors have subsided, he might tell of his experiences as the "Ghost of Gonzaga Hall".

Ignorance, though, is bliss, and with an unsuspecting smile and refreshing naivete, the then-young lad accepted the appointment and with one sigh eliminated one half of the difficulties, the business details; or, to put it quite frankly, they were gratuitously eliminated from his shoulders and gratuitously bestowed on the broader ones of Jack Weiss, famed accountant, efficiency expert and financial wizard. These two, together with Father Ryan, genial and encouraging moderator, and a newly appointed staff—Larry Fayette, Gerry Gingras, Phil Calcina, Wilbur Fomento, and Dick Warfle, surveyed the days ahead and, seeing no way of withdrawing from the field of combat, laid general plans for the yearbook.

First Row, left to right: R. Warfle, P. Calcina, J. Weiss, L. Fayette, P. Baldetti, G. Gingras, W. Fomento, G. Willard. Second Row: C. Boal, S. Gilbertie, R. Benack, T. De Luca, P. Nagy, R. Bykowski, R. Banyai, C. Conway, T. Squires, R. Berardi. Third Row: R. Ferraro, R. Preto-Rodas, F. O'Rourke, J. Begg, R. Carroll, J. Hall, W. Keish, R. Lappert.

". . . I, Paul Nagy, being of sound mind, herewith bequeath to Gerry Gingras . . ."

"How do you spell 'Moose'?"

During the following months the Manor office in Gonzaga rang with sounds of mirth and merriment: Weiss crying for a balanced budget, Gingras wrangling for a round picture instead of a square one, Fayette screaming for more copy, Baldetti bemoaning deadlines that came and went without effect, and the printer calling for more material. Every day desperate hands prepared to throw in the towel, but from the depths of the office came a still small voice: "If you won't do it, who will?" and the work went on.

Well, anyway, this is your 1958 Manor. The fact that it exists at all is a minor miracle and a tribute to the courage and magnitude of the human spirit.

The Manor is your book, as it has been in a very real sense from its first conception. And if we managed to capture between these covers some pleasant moments that you can refer to and treasure in the future, well, it was worth it.

"I've never read such trash!"

LAWRENCE FAYETTE
Associate Editor

JOHN WEISS
Business Manager

GERALD GINGRAS
Layout Editor

PHILIP CALCINA
Literary Editor

WILBUR FOMENTO
Photography Editor

RICHARD WARFLE
Art Editor

Business Club

One of the primary aims of a Jesuit education is that the student learn more about his subjects by planning activities connected with the subject-fields. That this principle is effective when put into operation is evidenced by the success and prestige of the Business Club.

Established in 1951 as a vehicle for co-ordinating class-room theory with practical business insight, the Business Club has consistently presented a program of well integrated activities in a social-business vein for the interest of its members.

The presentations of the past have been extensive and diversified, a well-rounded program including dinner meetings featuring well-known speakers from the commercial world, "on campus" meetings highlighted by guest speakers or business films, and field trips to local business concerns. The roster of speakers who have addressed the club is a veritable "Who's Who," among them the past Governor of Connecticut, John Davis Lodge, and Father John Corridan, S.J., the famous "Waterfront Priest".

Activities of the Business Club have enjoyed such wide popularity that its dinners and speeches attract many interested listeners with no direct affiliation with the Club. Under the moderation of Mr. Guy Barbano, the Business Club has an impressive record of achievement in the present and holds promise of progress and added prestige in the future.

First Row, left to right: R. Shepard, T. De Luca, D. Plouffe, P. Waide, W. MacQuillan, P. Kennedy, P. Negre, R. Bassett, W. Foley. Second Row: L. Parent, P. Swanson, F. Sullivan, F. Michaud, G. Willard, E. Zadravek, D. Perugini, R. Okenquist, R. Russell, C. Ciampi. Third Row: R. Lorenzo, E. Gallagher, J. Chalow, R. Zysk, R. Carton, P. Amedeo, J. Early, G. Moran, A. Bobay.

First Row, left to right: F. Smythe, R. Kaulbach, J. Kelly, R. Carroll, F. O'Rourke, W. Margiotta, C. McCann, D. Barrett. Second Row: W. Fomento, J. Breen, P. Calcina, G. Gingras, R. Bykowski, J. Cavalieri, J. Knoebelsdorff, W. Keish, C. Conway, P. Baldetti. Third Row: W. Curley, L. Fayette, W. Allen, J. Weiss, G. Willard, T. Morrison, T. Roache, E. Skinski, C. Guareglia, J. Chester.

"And after I flopped on Broadway . . ."

The Dramatic Society

A comparatively new activity, the Dramatic Society was organized in 1956. Its primary aim is to provide an opportunity for students interested in the theater to express themselves. Since its inception, the group has enjoyed a commendable measure of success, growing and flourishing at an accelerated pace to its present place as an integral part of the extra-curricular activities on campus.

Under the able guidance and direction of Mr. Robert Emerich and the moderation of Father Laurence Mullin, S.J., the Society's theatrical productions have been great successes. Their first one-act play, "The Game of Chess", captured first place in the Fordham Play Festival's competition, and "The Caine Mutiny Court-martial" was given an immensely effective production at the Shakespearean Theater in Stratford, Connecticut.

"The Rising of the Moon" was staged, as well as an elaborate production of "Time Limit", the latter once more at the Shakespearean Theater in Stratford.

The projected plans of the Society point towards a growth in membership and an expansion in its program.

The Dramatic Society

presents

Lady Gregory's

"RISING OF THE MOON"

First Row, left to right: D. Sweet, E. Martino, W. Lucia, C. Guareglia, H. Rochford, D. Rochford, J. McNamara, T. Squires, E. Geminan, E. O'Connor, R. Klein, J. Luciano. Second Row: W. Volpe, J. Carney, W. Pleban, W. Allen, T. Masi, V. Tedone, R. Berardi, D. Di Gennaro, R. Ferraro, W. Fomento. Third Row: F. Federico, F. D'Apice, R. O'Keefe, N. Shust, P. Rodrigues, J. Knobelsdorff, R. Schumacher, J. Alexander, R. Lappert, J. Tiscornia, D. Cerritelli, T. Roach, J. Cavalieri, J. Nespole, H. Hobermeier, E. Chopskie, R. De Gratolla, W. Grant, K. Bergen. Fourth Row: R. Benack, F. Crisafi, F. Connor, E. Donovan, G. Neigles, M. Rossi, R. Pulie, T. Nespole, J. Begg, R. Mace, T. Monks, H. Connelly, P. Guerin, T. Callan, J. Vincitorio, D. Buckley, R. Palazij, J. Sedensky.

The Mendel Club

Through the diligence and hard work of its officers and members and under the expert guidance of its faculty moderator, Father Francis X. Wilkie, S.J., the Mendel Club has grown into one of the best organized and most functional groups on campus. The purpose of the Club is to supplement the student's knowledge of the biological sciences by instilling an appreciation of the scope and trends of current research in these fields and to assist the pre-medical, pre-dental students in fulfilling their ambitions.

Meetings are conducted every second week for the presentation of original student papers on the ethical, social, and economic aspects of Biology, as well as technical topics on recent medical research. The members publish an informative monthly paper, THE NUCLEUS, which contains articles of biological interest, news of the Club alumni, and listings of new additions to the science library.

In addition, periodic evening socials, to which members may invite guests, are held featuring prominent guest lecturers, movies, and demonstrations in the various fields of medicine and biology. Another event always anticipated by the members is the annual Symposium.

The Club may well be proud of its alumni. Several who began by reading biological papers at these meetings are now practicing doctors and dentists, and one has been honored with an invitation to lecture at world famous Woods Hole, Massachusetts.

Biology Bar-Mitzvah.

"Cream and sugar?"

Unidentified member.

Sometimes we even study.

First Row, left to right: W. Lucia, P. Marinoccio, N. Shust, F. Mauri, M. Yaggi, W. Pellechia, L. Nagy, R. Benack. Second Row: M. Bonassar, T. Murray, W. MacQuillan, O. Keiley, R. Mace, A. Champ, A. Karg, R. Lappert, H. Connelly, D. Di Gennaro, J. Cavalieri.

The Chemistry Club

The Chemistry Club has advanced considerably since its formation in 1953. From a small but enthusiastic group of five members, it has grown to a larger but no less enthusiastic number. Its growth has not been without recognition: the Club is now a member of the American Chemical Society, an affiliation which has proved to be a source of many stimulating ideas for development.

The Club holds weekly meetings in which students deliver reports on particular topics in Chemistry and allied fields, and publishes "The Condenser", which includes articles printed by the students themselves.

Officers of the Chemistry Club are: Franklin Mauri, President; Nestor Shust, Vice-President; Thomas Carregliano, Secretary; and William Caliccia, Treasurer. Under the moderation of Father Gerald Hutchinson, S.J., they and all the members of the Club have done a great deal to spread scientific interest throughout the campus.

And it's 150 proof, too.

Math-Physics Club

During the school year 1957-1958, the Math-Physics Club's activities increased considerably beyond those of past years. The Club's purpose, to bring to students of Mathematics and Physics a greater interest in their fields of study extending beyond the scope of the classroom and laboratory, has been accomplished through the inauguration of a well-rounded program. Bi-weekly meetings are held to handle club business, and movies dealing with current scientific developments are shown frequently. Periodically, club members give informal lectures on their own particular projects and interests. The many social activities sponsored by the Club include an annual banquet and picnic.

The success of the Math-Physics Club is due in great measure to the work of its officers: Bernard Muldoon, President; Arthur Chagnon, Vice-President; Fred Bauhm, Treasurer; and Eugene Grassler, Secretary.

". . . and there will be room in the satellite for three Jesuits."

First Row, left to right: M. Paolillo, W. Zack, J. Ryan, J. Masi, L. Cavanaugh, R. Tremo. Second Row: F. Murphy, A. Caruso, F. Russo, F. Bauhm, B. Muldoon, A. Chagnon, E. Grassler, R. Kearney, R. Grosso, E. Ferraiolo. Third Row: R. Preuchneky, R. Fisher, M. Mullin, C. Williams, J. Tyne, J. Weiss, J. Cavalieri, D. Plaskon, R. Skronski, R. Tomasko, J. Sedensky, R. Hoben. Fourth Row: R. Stubbs, W. Dow, R. Thibault, G. Willard, R. Riller, B. Anderson, D. Toomey, T. Komeizo, A. Funk, J. Moran, K. Felsmann, P. Cogan, R. Stubbs, D. Drongoski, A. Beauregard.

First Row, left to right: D. Genga, J. Masterson, E. Reynolds, R. Cormier, S. Ryan, P. Reilly, W. Griffin, C. Testa. Second Row: P. St. Pierre, S. Kelly, T. Morrison, P. Shivell, E. Diskowski, W. Keish, L. Parent, T. O'Hara. Third Row: B. Boland, W. Morrissey, R. Healy, R. Balarczak, G. McGauley, P. Cross, F. O'Rourke, L. Angelone.

Veterans Club

And all because of a little party!

To meet the ever-increasing needs of returning servicemen, the veterans of Fairfield University formed their own organization in the fall of 1954. Immediately a competent, popular club, the "Vets" Club, as it is known to the student body, strives to eliminate the common difficulties of the veteran students and to foster their social activities on campus. In addition, the club's social affairs have been extended to the entire student body.

As its most important social activity, the club sponsors a gala party after the Mid-Winter Carnival formal, such a successful affair that it has become an annual event, eagerly anticipated by all who attend the Carnival.

First Row, left to right: R. Keogh, J. Patchew, R. Widzienicz, S. Kelly, J. Esposito, P. Reilly, W. Fomento. Second Row: P. Cafferty, C. Winans, A. Savignano, D. Lapman, R. Carton, J. Bulaski, C. Maritolo.

Education Club

Functioning under the moderation of Father Coughlin, S.J., and led by president Stephen Kelly, the Education Club presents to its members an excellent opportunity to discuss much of the theory proposed in the Education classes, both among themselves and with distinguished lecturers througout the year.

The Voice of the club is heard most clearly at every important Student Education function throughout the state, where a member is delegated to represent the University. Stephen Kelly, President of the Club, is also Vice-President of the Student Education Association of Connecticut.

First Row, left to right: P. Baldetti, R. Ferraro, R. Banyai, B. Murphy, T. Squires, W. Lucia. Second Row: R. Warfle, R. Preto-Rodas, J. Begg, A. Neumann, C. Skapczynski.

The St. Cecilia Academy

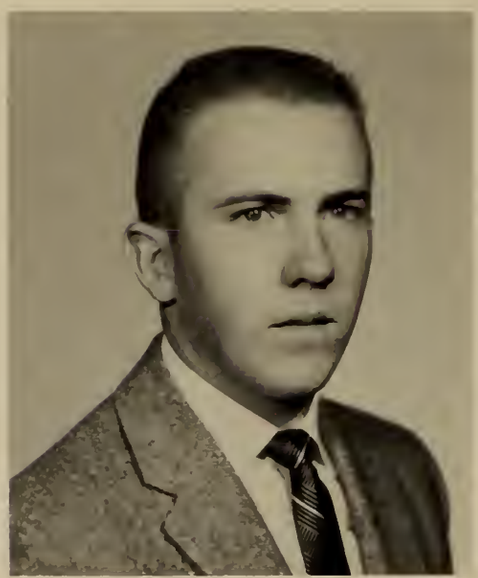
If by chance some afternoon the corridors of Xavier should ring with Wagnerian thunder or the melodic strains of Mozart, the explanation would be a simple one: the St. Cecilia Academy is holding a "concert". Organized in 1957 by Dr. Donald Ross and Brian Murphy of the class of 1958, this small but effective organization has attracted devotees of classical music from all classes. The group not only fills a long-felt cultural need in a liberal arts curriculum, but also gives music-lovers a chance to share their enthusiasm with others.

Peter M. Baldetti

Philip F. Calcina

Dominick H. Cerritelli, Jr.

James F. Daly, Jr.



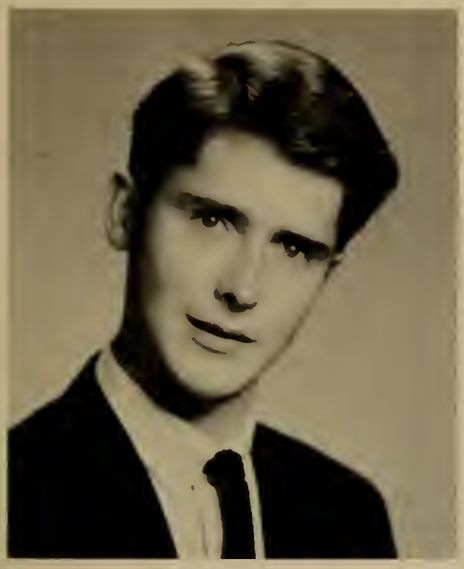
Francis H. Doherty

Robert R. Dorin

William J. Doyle

Lawrence J. Fayette

Paul J. Nagy



Francis B. O'Rourke

Richard A. Preto-Rodas

Richard J. Pulie

Michael A. Rossi

Robert M. Schumacher

Robert J. Thibault

HONOR SOCIETY

Verly Reverend Joseph D. Fitzgerald, S.J., President of the University, upon the recommendation of Reverend William J. Healy, S.J., Dean of the University, has in recognition of their outstanding scholastic achievement and of their generous and effective participation in school activities named these students of the Class of 1958 to membership in the Fairfield University Honor Society.

First Row, left to right: P. Baldetti, D. Genga, M. Mowad, D. Zucco, N. De Paola, J. De Cieco, L. DeGiulio. Second Row: T. Squires, C. Guareglia, J. Guman, L. Angelone, W. Lucia, F. Marcellino, W. Fomento. Third Row: J. Cavalieri, R. Preto-Rodas, J. Tuite, A. Neumann, W. Margiotta, R. Ferraro.

Italian Club

Although, regrettably, study of Italian has been temporarily discontinued as a part of the Fairfield curriculum, the enthusiasm of Italian students on campus for Italian literature and culture has led to the reorganization of the Italian Club. Although no bocci tournaments have been held as yet, though plans are being made, the Club holds monthly meetings in which topics dealing with Italy and things Italian are discussed. Under the moderation of Mr. Mario Guarcello, the club develops richer knowledge of the land across the sea, "Il Paese del Sole".

First Row, left to right: W. Curley, P. Baldetti, N. Abbott, P. Crisculo, L. Crane, J. Renaski, W. Fomento, R. Bykowski. Second Row: G. Moran, R. Lyons, R. Preto-Rodas, E. Gallagher, R. Carton, M. Moran, P. Kennedy, P. Calcina, L. Fayette.

French Club

Under the guidance of Dr. Gerard McDonald, the French Club conducts its activities each year toward one main objective, the creation of a truly French atmosphere which might be absorbed not only by members of the Club, but by the entire student body. Its activities were inaugurated by a banquet at the Cafe Barna in Westport to which all men of the University and their guests were invited. Frequent meetings were held during the year featuring movies and talks on some topic of French interest.

First Row, left to right: T. Rosati, R. Klein, W. Allen, R. Gerrity, T. Roach, J. Knobelsdorff, M. Buckmeer, C. Conway. Second Row: R. Brown, E. Zadravec, P. Crehan, R. Balcerzak, T. Kmetzo, K. Felsmann, W. Naedele, G. Willard, D. Drongoski, H. Connelly.

Bridgeport Area Club

This year marked the sixth year of existence of the Bridgeport Area Club, first of the area organizations on campus and still one of the largest. Since its inception in 1951, the Club has financially aided and spiritually encouraged many men in the Bridgeport-Fairfield area by issuing scholarships and setting the mature example of what the Catholic college undergraduate should be. Under President Phil Guerin, the Club enjoyed another successful and eventful year, climaxed by the traditional Glee Club concert at Klein Memorial in Bridgeport.

Metropolitan Area Club

In order that the boys from the "Big City" might be better acquainted with each other and create a spirit of fraternal fellowship, the Metropolitan Area Club was organized nine years ago. Its present membership totals more than ninety students.

This year's events included a Welcome Social for new members and their fathers, plus the annual Thanksgiving dances in Yonkers and the Christmas dance at the Hotel Governor Clinton in New York City. Post game "Victory Celebrations" also were greatly enjoyed by the members. Vincent Tedone was President for this year, while the other officers were William Morrissey as Vice-President, Michael James as Secretary, Carl Guareglia as Corresponding Secretary, and Jack Toal as Treasurer. The moderator for this year was Rev. Christopher Sullivan.

First Row, left to right: L. De Giulio, C. Guareglia, M. James, V. Tedone, W. Morrissey, J. Toal, J. Distinti. Second Row: R. Richards, V. Grayson, B. Hickey, L. Washburn, A. Funk, D. Sullivan, J. Perrine, T. Morrison.

Waterbury Area Club

"We have hayrides, too."

Since its inception in 1948, the growth of the Waterbury Area Club has been consistent with that of the university. The student body has grown, and so has the number of scholarships given by the club; scholarships to be awarded this coming year number four. The chief source of revenue for these scholarships is the annual Glee Club concert held in Wilby Auditorium. As the prime purpose of the club is not only to provide funds for the education of Waterbury youth at Fairfield, but also to keep the name and ideals of Fairfield in the minds of the people of the Waterbury Area, the club also sponsors a year-round calendar of events, ranging from the annual clam-bake and hayride for the Freshmen from the area to a combined alumni-undergraduate Communion breakfast. In the past, these events have been extremely successful, as have been the traditional Christmas formal, held at the Waverly Inn, and the Senior Farewell Dinner-Dance. In all, the Waterbury Area Club, conscious of its own activity as a part of the university, has sought in all its endeavors to preserve and fulfill the ideals of Fairfield.

First Row, left to right: T. Fenton, L. Kavanagh, J. Crowley, J. Begg, R. Berardi, F. Lynch, J. Pettit, R. Pugliese, R. Shepard, J. Gilmore. Second Row: H. Dreisch, T. De Luca, W. Margiotta, C. McWeey, S. Kelly, V. De Rienzo, D. Perugini, D. D'Alessio, P. Carolan, D. Rinaldi, C. Ciampi. Third Row: T. Murphy, A. Beauregard, P. Amedeo, D. Toomey, K. Felsmann, J. Crane, R. Carroll, J. Vincitorio, G. Gingras, F. Sullivan.

First Row, left to right: P. Baldetti, T. Squires, E. Gallagher, P. Kennedy, R. Russell, G. Moran, R. Ferraro, C. Testa. Second Row: R. Kearney, W. Fomento, J. Doherty, B. Muldoon, P. Ciardiello, R. Carton, G. Willard, J. Hall, B. Crisafi, W. Keish, J. Carney.

New Haven Area Club

The purpose of the New Haven Club was stated when it was first formed in 1948: to solidify the reputation which Fairfield University had achieved throughout the New Haven area and to spread the Catholic faith through the "City of Elms"

The Club's varied social activities culminate in the famed New Year's Eve Dinner-Dance, an event so popular that it attracts fun-lovers from the entire Connecticut area. This event is preceded by a Freshman Welcome Dance in the fall, and is followed by a Senior Farewell Picnic held at Lighthouse Point. Under President Pat Kennedy, this year has been another enjoyable chapter in the history of the most jovial and fun-loving Area Club on campus.

In real life, mild-mannered Tom Squires.

Revolting Hungarian student?

First Row, left to right: J. Riordan, D. Cerritelli, R. Schumacher, J. Supp, P. Nagy. Second Row: J. Snozowski, S. Spak, H. Connelly, E. Donovan, R. Widzienicz.

Valley Area Club

One of the oldest area clubs in existence at the University, the Valley Association was founded in 1948, and although still relatively small in membership, it has grown to one of the most active and respected area clubs on campus. To serve the interests of Connecticut Valley students and to make new students from that area feel at ease in college life, the Association sponsors a well-rounded social program. A Glee Club concert, a social stag for new Valley area students, and an annual Dinner Dance are the Club's traditional activities.

First Row, left to right: P. Baldetti, E. Skinski, F. Doherty, D. Papallo. Second Row: C. Conway, W. Doyle, G. Willard, J. Chester.

Central Connecticut Area Club

The Central Connecticut Area Club was founded two years ago to serve students from Meriden, Middletown and Wallingford both academically and socially. The youngest of the Area Clubs, the organization has had a successful year despite growing pains, and the future holds promise of many and varied social activites under the aegis of the Central Connecticut contingent.

First Row, left to right: W. Griffin, C. Williams, T. O'Connor, M. Faucher, R. Banyai. Second Row: R. Russell, D. Tropeano, J. Redway, R. Bard.

Norwalk Area Club

The Norwalk Area Club has grown rapidly in recent years, keeping pace with the growth of the University. The Club's purpose – to supplement curricular and extra-curricular activities on and off campus – has been successfully achieved through the Club's social program. Dances are annual events, as well as a Communion Breakfast to which all University students are invited.

Hartford Area Club

One of the most active undergraduate social organizations on campus, the Hartford Area Club sponsored a Communion Breakfast last year as well as the annual New Year's Eve Dance. The Club's outstanding activity is the Fairfield University Clee Club concert held each year at the Bushnell Memorial Auditorium. The proceeds from this concert have helped establish a scholarship which the Hartford Area Club awards to a Hartford resident who meets the scholarship standards of the University.

The Club's officers are: Jim Boesch, President; Fran Marcellino, Vice-President; Jack Tine, Secretary; Dave San Giacomo, Treasurer; and George McGauley, Corresponding Secretary.

First Row, left to right: R. O'Keefe, J. Tine, F. Marcellino, J. Boesch, G. McGauley, R. Harper, S. Ryan. Second Row: A. Neumann, G. Hill, R. Healy, J. Sharlow, J. Mastrangelo.

First Row, left to right: P. Baldelli, W. Doyle, G. Gingras, G. Willard, G. McGauley, C. Conway. Second Row: J. Masterson, T. Morrison, L. Angelone, R. Zysk, J. Weiss, P. Rielly, S. Ryan.

The Birdwatchers

In the fall of 1947, with the initial opening of the University, came the formation of the Society of Birdwatchers. Originally founded by a group of nature-loving students from New York, the ranks were soon swelled by a multitude of students from other areas, attracted to the Society by a sincere interest in its functions. Early meetings were held in the inauspicious but warm surroundings of the House of Flanagan, noted bird sanctuary on Reef Island in Fairfield. By the early spring of that year, field trips had been organized to Waterbury and New York so that members might enlarge their appreciation of the ethereal qualities of our winged friends in other areas.

As the University grew, so did the Society, and so, in order that those who most appreciated the value of birds to men might be admitted first, an elaborate ritual was devised, one part of which, the Assembly of the Grand Avalu, is pictured below. Except for 1955-1956, when the Birdwatchers became almost extinct due to a curtailment of activity and clipping of certain wings, the Society has increased its functions and established a new sanctuary, the Beachside Nest, where at almost any time of day or night members may be seen contemplating the Society's symbol, Three Feathers, or perhaps communing with spirits as they sit with their mascot, the Old Crow. Still, the favorite activity of all Birdwatchers may be easily observed as one oft-times sees them reclining, standing, in all positions, with glasses raised, watching the swallows.

It is with much solemnity and sadness the the Senior members, passing into extinction and attaining the rank of Dodo, will utter the Society motto for the last time: "We're for the birds."

Secret Ritual of the Birdwatchers.

SPORTS

Possession is nine-tenths of the law.

Varsity Basketball

This was the year of the big game, of the student crowds that filled the Center, of the team now next to the best in school's history. This was the year of the big score—of Ed Diskowski's 33 against St. Michael's, of Fran Hanley's 30 against Farleigh, of Pat Kelly's 28 against Boston College. This was the year the team finished a big second in the Tri-State League, and the year the team caused coaches to consider just how soon Fairfield would be in the N.I.T.

It must have been about the time of the B.C. game that everyone began to take serious notice of the team. Fresh from an 84-59 slaughter of New Haven and a 69-67 squeaker over previously undefeated Brooklyn College, the Stags entered the game against a B.C. team rated second in New England. Fairfield was prophesied to lose by at least twenty points. But the overwhelming rebounding of Frank McGowan and the sparklingly accurate jump-shooting of Pat Kelly forced the Eagles to earn what was a desperate win, 71-64.

Now the pace was set. Roaring out of King's Point

Ed Diskowski launches a satellite during the Boston College game.

(70-55), the Red Men stumbled and were momentarily stunned by A.I.C.'s 70-64 victory, accomplished when Dick Kross, the A.I.C. star, set a new school scoring record. But the Stags rebounded from this by knocking over U.B. with vengeance, 68-58, and tore into a five game winning streak. St. Michael's was decisively upset (68-67) when Ed Diskowski showed the season's highest individual scoring with 33 points. Merrimack was shattered (109 52) by the highest total of Fairfield's goals ever scored in one game. Stonehill (92-69) didn't have a prayer, and Yeshiva (85-63) was so much kindle for the Fairfield fire. Now the team was red-hot, tied for the lead of the Tri-State League with Adelphi, and ready. Unfortunately, so was Adelphi.

Thus, the center of the year was the Adelphi game; and with it, the 64-54 loss became the central loss. Many were shocked by such an unexpected loss, different from the shock of an unexpected surge against B.C., different from the shock of unexpected win against St. Francis. But the game was over.

Flannigan rises to the occasion.

First Row, left to right: H. Hyra, M. Mullin, E. Diskowski, F. Hanley, J. Cherrytree, V. Alvino. Second Row, left to right: J. Hanrahan, Coach; R. Ripke, P. Kelly, F. McGowan. J. Flannigan, E. Garofalo, Assistant Coach; L. Lessing, Manager.

The natural reaction was to win. And win the Red Men did, battling eye for eye until Farleigh-Dickinson submitted, 87-83. Captain Fran Hanley was the take-charge man that night as he dropped in 30 points.

But that wasn't enough. Farleigh-Dickinson was Farleigh-Dickinson, but St. Francis was a big name. And despite the ups and downs and near misses of the season, when Fairfield University humbled Al Innis, Les Yellin, and Danny D'Elia with an 81-73 performance, there could be no doubt that this team of ours was with it. The team effort of Kelly (23 points), Hanley (22), and Diskowski (20) in scoring, the alert ball-handling and sharp play-

The Moose is loose!

Shall we dance?

"Please, men, I've got a family to support . . ."

Is this basketball I see before me? . . .

making of Vin Alvino, the thundering rebounding of Frank McGowan all made Fairfield win that night.

Thus, for all intents, the year ended. Oh sure, the team almost beat St. Peter's (64-74) and evenly matched the the N.I.T.-bound Pelicans. In fact, the Hanrahan boys were ahead until Peter Morano drew the Jerseyites away with two minutes remaining. And, of course, some consideration must be given the U.B. defeat (72-76), where a let-down after three of the season's roughest games combined with a fine performance by the Seaside school to dampen the season's end.

But, if one considers the Brooklyn-Boston College games as the start of it all, the five game win-streak as the heart of the season, and the Adelphi game as the climax, then the St. Francis game can only be the end. In that light, shadowed at the edges by the struggling first games, and the struggling last games, exists this past season.

Catch a falling star . . .

A tense moment on the bench.

Is this American Bandstand?

Hold that pose!

Rock 'em and sock 'em basketball.

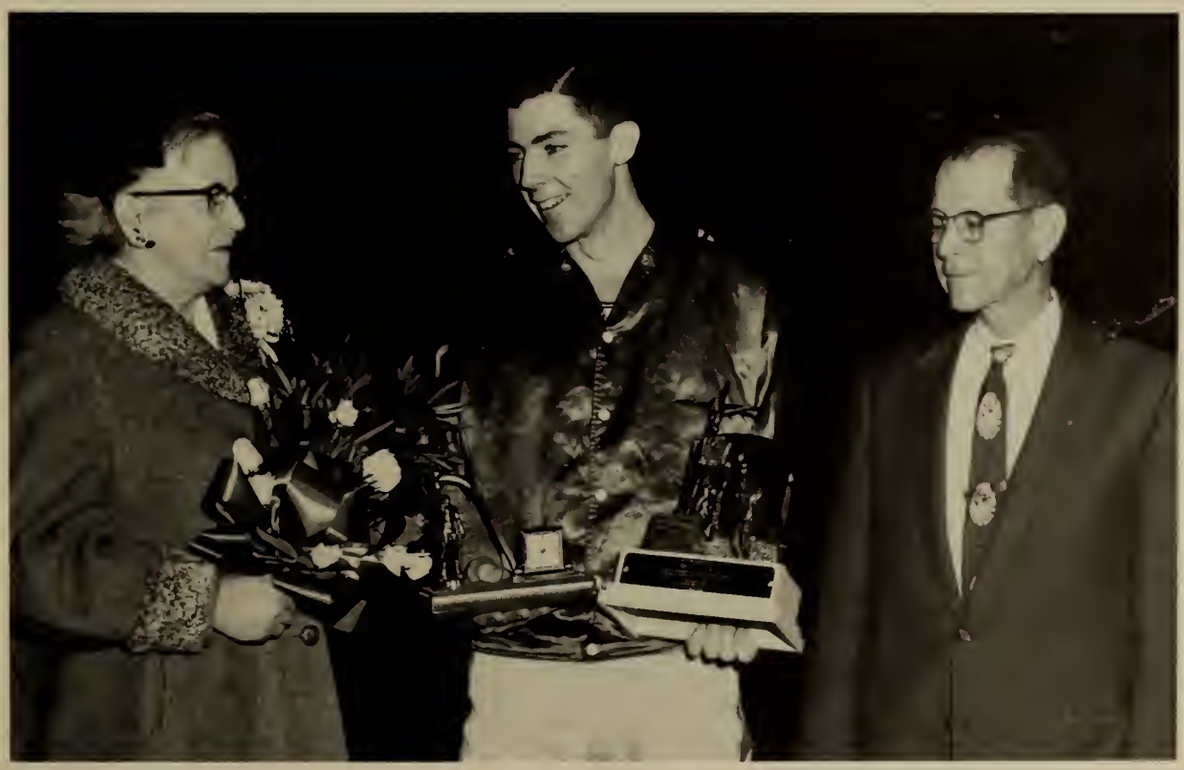
Captain Fran Hanley has played his last game for the Fairfield Stags. His playing has always been an inspiration to his teammates and he will be sorely missed by next year's squad. His scrappy rebounding and all-around fight, combined with three years' varsity experience has made him indispensable this year. "Hot-Rod" had his finest night in a recent Tri-State game against Farleigh-Dickinson when his almost unbelievable 9 for 11 performance from the floor in the second half led the Stags to a close 87-83 victory. That night's total of 30 points was Fran's three-year high. Fran will be missed next season, but he will never be forgotten by those who have been privileged to witness his valiant court performance.

—The Stag, February 27, 1958

Fran grabs a rebound during the U. B. game.



A proud moment for the Hanley family. — While Mr. and Mrs. Hanley look on, Fran poses with the trophies awarded him on Fran Hanley Day.

Exciting moment: Who will get the ball?

. . . And two more points for Fairfield.

Freshman Basketball

This was an exciting and highly successful season for Coach Emil Garofalo's Freshman squad, who managed to achieve an impressive record of thirteen wins and only four losses. Among the formidable opponents who fell beneath the onslaught of the Junior Stags were Brooklyn College, Iona, and the University of Bridgeport Freshmen.

Sparks on the star-spangled victory team were Art Crawford, the team's leading scorer and a dazzling rebounder, and Dick Panuczak, who also piled up an impressive number of points, scoring from anywhere on the court. And the others — Dick Lorenzo, Joe Flood, Bert Anderson, and all the rest — provided the team-work and co-ordination needed for the impetus to victory. 1957-58 was a banner basketball season for Fairfield in all respects.

Fairfield fights ferociously.

Up goes Panuczak, and so does the score.

First Row, left to right: T. Ungerland, R. Panuczak, B. Anderson, J. Flood. Second Row: J. Dowd, T. Murphy, A. Crawford, Mr. E. Garofalo, Coach. Not pictured: G. O'Keefe, R. Lorenzo, R. Loughlin.

Larry Fayette: Our answer to Yogi Berra.

Ned Skinski: Ace of the ptiching staff: Eight strike-outs against Holy Cross.

Baseball

On June 1, the school year had all but ended. Exams were over and most of the rooms back on campus were empty; it was for all intents, the first day of summer. In Worcester, however, out on the ball feld at Holy Cross, some last-time business was being run off, as the last effort of 1957. The baseball team, deep in defeat all season, had a chance to soothe some consciences, relax some nerves; and win a ball game.

To win a ball game — what an ambition. Long, long ago, on April 27, U.B. had been stepped upon and pushed into defeat. That day was short. Between then and now, nine games had passed, nine hopes had withered, nine losses had been slammed into the face of Fairfield.

There had been the New Haven game, the second game of the season. Dave Toomey, a sophomore, had made his college pitching debut, and had held the Teachers scoreless for seven innings. Waters had singled, Cerulli tripled, and Fairfield was ahead 1-0. Then it happened: 4-1, though Toomey had a three-hitter.

There had been New Britain. Buddy Waters had a great day, going 4 for 5, with a homer, two doubles, and a single. Behind 6-2, Fairfield had scored three in the eighth, tied it up in the ninth; and lost it in the twelfth, 9-6.

Buddy cuts loose with 170 pounds of muscle and 34 ounces of willow.

First Row, left to right: E. Skinski, W. Foley, L. Fayette, D. Miko, G. McGoldrick, L. Waters, A. Emmanuelli. Second Row: W. Tagg, Manager; J. Redway, F. Sullivan, J. Wood, F. McGowan, D. Toomey, E. Cerulli, A. Pavluchik, J. Hanrahan, Coach.

Toomey delivers; Fayette at plate.

And, of course, there had been Bridgeport. That was the soother, the rationalizer, the "Well, against them we . . ." Ed Cerulli had weathered a rough first three innings in which Bridgeport had scored five runs. By the eighth, the Stags had gotten back three of the markers. And then, on back-to-back singles by Jack Redway, Frank Mc-Gowan, and Cerulli, the fourth, fifth, and sixth runs scored. From the third on, Cerulli had blanked the Knights, for a 6-5 Fairfield victory.

Now it was June 1 and Fitton Feld was warm in the clear air that clicked with the echoed tick of practice hits, that sounded with the murmurs of benches wanting runs, that silenced with the emptying of the outfield and the manager dragging away the sack of bats. Ed Skinski had struck out eight; the "Moose" had allowed seven hits. And instead of the crushing 13-2 defeat of the year before, a 5-0 defeat was at least a respectable end to another season.

The gazelle.

Fairfield bench and rooters.

Where's the ball?

Another strike on the way.

It's a bunt, but we're ready for it.

Captain Jack Murphy.

Man against space: Tony Champ sails across the bar in a blur of speed.

Track and Cross Country

With the coming of Spring and warm weather, the new cinder track by Alumni Field beckons invitingly to Coach Tamashunas and Fairfield devotees of the blister-and-liniment circuit. If red streaks are spotted whizzing about the campus, chances are that they might be Captain Jack Murphy, Dave Drongoski, Tom Farrell, or another man in red getting into shape for another season.

This season was a season of broken records: Tony Champ managed to break the school record on low hurdles with an amazing 26.8 seconds score, and Ziggy Zysk shattered another record by hurling the shot-put 41 feet and 8½ inches. The growing enthusiasm for the cinder sport on campus and the increasing influx of underclassmen promises steady improvement for the Stag Harriers.

You're supposed to roll a bocci ball, Ziggy.

CROSS COUNTRY

First Row, left to right: F. Connor, R. McCarthy, J. Hall. Second Row: J. Fleming, T. Shea, J. Cuskley.

Roger Bannister?
No, but you're close.

"Say, Jack, when is the Manor coming out?"

TRACK

First Row, left to right: L. Angelone. R. McCarthy, J. Murphy, J. Hall, D. Muldoon, F. O'Connor. Second Row: T. Farrell, D. Drongoski, J. Cuskley, T. Shea, R. Zysk, J. McNamara, J. Fleming.

ACTIVITIES

"Take it, it's free."

Guys and dolls.

Junior Prom, 1957

It would be difficult to find a member of the class of '58 who would not choose the Junior Prom as his most remembered event of 1957. There are so many pleasant memories of that evening that one would be hard put to name them all: the sumptuous but tasteful decor of the Longshore Country Club; the lilting rhythms of Chic Chicetti's orchestra which greeted us as we entered with our dates; the charm and lovely vocalizing of colleen Carmel Quinn, Queen of the Dogwood Festival; the crowning of lovely Margaret O'Keefe as Queen of the Prom; and the clap on the back that told Prom Chairman Ed Reynolds that he couldn't have done a better job and Junior Week Chairman Vin Martin that Junior Week 1957 was one of the finest weekends of our college years.

Top guys and top dolls.

People dancing.

"When Irish eyes are smiling . . ."

Flowers for a fair colleen: Vin Martin, Weekend Chairman, presents Carmel Quinn with a spray of dogwood while Prom Chairman Ed Reynolds looks on.

Irish eyes are smiling: Bill Doyle is flanked by Carmel Quinn and his date, Miss Margaret O'Keefe, Queen of the Prom.

Senior Informal

Informality was the keynote of this year's Senior Dance, the Autumn Rhapsody. Loyola Cafeteria, decorated in autumnal colors of orange and black, set the scene for an evening of fun and enjoyment, while the smooth rhythms of Joey Zelle's orchestra provided a melodic welcome to the harvest season. Chairmen Pete Ciardiello and Vin Scully did themselves proud with this one, as proved by the cheerful smiles and general gaiety of the evening.

"Anyone ever tell you that you look like Gina Lollobrigida?"

"Winston tastes good . . . like a cigarette should."

"Drink it fast, before it eats through the cup."

"There was this traveling salesman, see . . ."

Peasant dancing troupe arrives on scene.

"Look out for the pole!"

Mid-Winter Carnival

A Queen is crowned: Chairman Emile Cote crowns Miss Frances Burriesci Winter Carnival Queen of 1958.

No two words are more apt to bring a smile to the face, a gleam of enthusiasm to the eye, and a hearty whoop to the voice of a Fairfield student than the words: "Mid-Winter Carnival". This year was no exception. Even before rust-colored leaves began falling, Weekend Chairman Emile Cote and his committee were already planning for the winter festivities. The weekend itself began for many students early in the afternoon of Friday, February 14, with the not unpleasant task of meeting dates and settling them in local hosteleries about the area. Then came the frantic time of getting dressed, brushed, shined, and ready for the big Formal.

Somehow, miraculously, everyone made it. At 9:30 or thereabout, we drove under the canopy of stately elms that lined the path to the Long Shore Country Club Ahead of us, glistening in the moonlight, were the traditional ice carvings, fashioned with careful precision by Bob Sabo, Bob Ryback, and Mr. Fred Tartaro.

We all smiled proudly as we entered the lobby with our dates, all of them as beautiful and gorgeously dressed as queens and, in that confusion of bright tuxes and bouffant gowns, we somehow managed to check our coats and pick up our bids. As we entered the dance floor, our dates clutched their favors carefully – they were glittering Fairfield beer mugs, and even we eyed them enviously. The dance floor – what we could see of it through the crowd of swirling couples – reflected red, blue, and yellow lights that streamed down through a maze of bright crepe decorations. Somehow we made our way to our tables, stopping every few seconds for a hearty hand-shake or mutual introduction. The faculty were there, too, but somehow they seemed quite different from the solemn professors of the class-room; they, too, were caught up in the gaiety of the evening. After a short chat with other table-hoppers, we bravely decided to try a turn on the dance floor, already

(Continued on Page 116)

Miss Frances Burriesci of Stamford, Winter Carnival Queen of 1958. →

The traditional ice carvings provide a glittering welcome for couples arriving at the Longshore Country Club.

More people dancing.

An exciting moment for Miss Burriesci and escort Robert Bello.

five couples deep, and we managed to elbow our way through a crowd dancing the Lindy — or was it a cha-cha? Three fox-trots later, weary but happy, we staggered back to our tables and, in the quiet reverie that followed, we commented on the tasteful decorations, on the lilting rhythms of Chic Chicetti's band, and on the wonderful job done by Chairmen Joe Chester and Jack Kelley.

Then came the long-awaited climax of the dance: Phil Guerin stepped into the spotlight, and, as seven contestants and their dates held their breath with suspense, he announced the Carnival Queen, Miss Frances Burriesci of Stamford.

After that the evening slipped by quickly. It seemed just a matter of moments until we were dancing to the nostalgic strains of "Goodnight Ladies". Then came the task of retrieving our coats and, as we stepped out into the moonlight, once again we saw the ice carvings glittering before us. It was then that we really realized for the first time that this was our last Winter Carnival. But it had been a wonderful one.

All right, Jack, so you weren't chosen Queen.

Vets Club Party

Almost as traditional as the Winter Carnival Formal itself is the annual Vets Club Party which follows it. Held this year at Eichner's, the party proved to be more successful—and happier—than ever. In an informal setting, we somehow found enough stamina and good spirit for another melange of Lindys, mambos and swing. The food was lavishly spread and delicious, Ed Graf's music was bouncy and catchy, and this time, if ever, a good time was had by all.

"My goodness, Gordie, when is the Manor coming out?"

"Do you really think I'm handsome?"

What, me worry?

"Gee, George, this 7-Up tastes kind of funny."

"When the Saints come marching in . . ."

Jazz Concert

Saturday afternoon brought with it yet another chapter in the Weekend festivities. Jazz afficianados — and just plain lovers of good music — crowded McAuliffe Cafeteria and, in gay informality and uninhibited enthusiasm, applauded the swinging sounds of Eli's Chosen Six. Memorable moments in a happy afternoon include the "gone" dancing of John Crane, Joe Chester, and Bill Doyle, and a fabulous rendition of "When the Saints Come Marching In."

Senior Stag

This year's Senior Stag, held for the first time at the beginning of the school year, heralded a new high in school and fraternal spirit as the Senior Class crowded the Tokay Restaurant in Bridgeport, listened to an interesting talk by Doctor McCarthy, enjoyed some delicious food, and entertained with an impromptu dancing exhibition. Spirits were high, the laughter was hearty, and the following morning Seniors went back to classes with smiles that even exams could not erase.

"Friends, and you are my friends . . ."

"Sure, we're 21."

"Make it 'One For My Baby'."

A fiery flamenco by Paul Nagy . . .

Larry loses his head during an exciting Apache dance . . .

A Polish folk dance by Joe Chester . . .

An authentic Indian ceremonial dance by Bob Bello . . .

. . . And a Hungarian Hula-hop by Bob Banyai.

Senior Elections

It was a sunny day in April when Xavier Cafeteria was transformed into a political arena. The walls were a colorful display of ingenious election posters, debates were loud and lusty, and the cries of "Free Coffee!" were heard frequently above the noise and general excitement of rising politicians and their followers. After two days of breathless, enthusiastic campaigning, the victors were named and general congratulations were exchanged. It's all history now—Fran Doherty was elected Class President; Steve Kelly, Vice-President; Charley Williams, Secretary; and Bob Hughes, Treasurer.

Easy, Joe, that's your fifth cup.

A vote for Miller High Life.

Mafia leaders.

"And he's good-looking, too."

May Day Mass

1957

The sky was a rich, deep blue puffed with clouds, the air was warm and filled with a verdant freshness, the trees and flowers along the Fairfield campus were bursts of green and orange on the first day of May. This was Mary's Day; and, in Fairfield's traditional tribute to Our Lady the students and faculty walked across the sloping green of the campus to the alumni field where a solemn high Mass was offered by Bishop Sheehan in honor of Mary. It was a morning rich with sunshine and fresh with the bloom of spring, and as the sound of Hail Marys mingled with the rustle of leaves overhead, and as incense rose into the glow of sunlight, we all felt a special closeness to Mary, Our Lady of Fairfield.

University and Prep students begin the walk to Mass.

Father Hogan, Bishop Sheehan, and Father Rooney.

A solemn moment: Bishop Sheehan bestows the Pontifical Blessing.

"Hail Mary, full of grace . . ."

"Adeste Fideles . . ."

Father Oliver Nickerson, R.N.

Loyola Christmas Party

Christmas came to Fairfield in a melange of twinkling red, blue, and green Christmas lights, brightly painted doorways, and frosty gusts of cold crisp wind that brought a glow to students' faces and made the breath rise in wispy puffs. Loyola Dormitory, too, was ready to celebrate the birth of the Infant Savior. The festivities began with a succulent meal in the best Yuletide tradition, and Father Fitzgerald spoke of the significance and beauty of the Christmas season. Even Santa Claus appeared with a well-stuffed bag of gifts for the faculty, and there was a fun-filled program of skits and songs. Then, as the strains of "Silent Night" faded softly into the darkness, there was a deep stillness on the Fairfield campus.

For, as on a night two thousand years before, an Infant was being lulled to sleep.

"For me?": Father Donoghue receives an unexpected gift from Santa's pack.

"But I'm allergic to these, Santa."

FACULTY INFORMALS

"You should have seen the surprised look on their faces when they saw that exam!"

"Say, that's wonderful, Father Troisfontaines."

"I'd walk a mill-yun miles for one of your smiles . . ."

"No, we don't have the same book in a larger size."

"He teaches here, too."

The most happy fellas.

"Now we'll play for your socks."

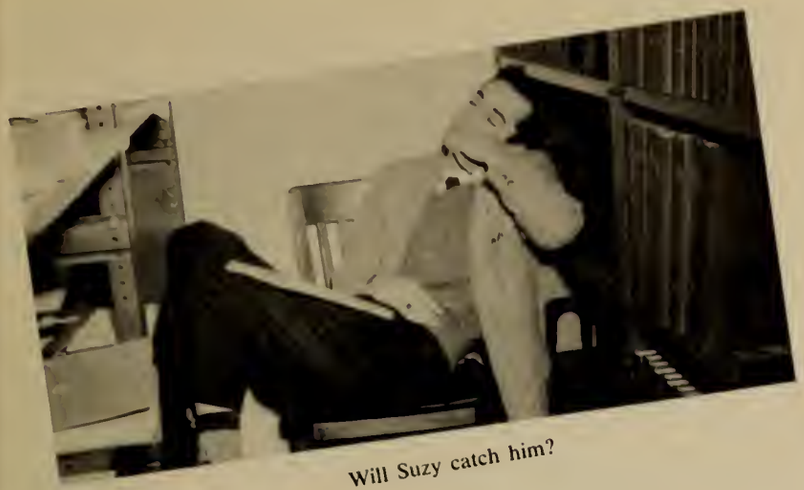
"Oh boy, bottled Portuguese Rice Stew!"

SENIOR INFORMALS

"Once upon a time there were three universal skeptics . . ."

Alas poor Ralph . . . We knew him well.

"I knew I shouldn't have gone to that Freshman party!"



Will Suzy catch him?

Tucson Arizona Area Club.

Anzio Beachhead – 1943.

What's the word? Thunderbird!

"That'll be $283.72."

"Back! Back! I created you!"

"What do you mean, 'When is the Manor coming out?' "

"And after I fought Tony Galento I realized I was washed up . . ."

The Lenten fast was too much for him.

"What thish Counshil needs . . ."

"Want to drag for beers?"

"I'm really not supposed to give these . . ."

Bykowski, aren't you supposed to be in class?

The Martians have landed!

"Take me to your leader."

Every one a queen.

"We're gonna have a rumble tonight, see?"

"Is everybody happy?"

"And afterward we can use them for ice cubes."

"Let's see you get out of that one."

"You know, you're the first blind date I've ever really got along with."

Tilt!

What's wrong with this picture?

It's the light refreshment.

". . . And flights of angels wing thee to thy rest . . ."

To those of us who leave her, Fairfield University is many things.

To some of us, she is a spring-burst of dogwood showering across North Benson Road in the golden glow of the early springtime, a cool cascade of shadows sheltering Xavier Hall from the heat of a sultry sun, the scarlet fringe of a sunset flooding across the Connecticut hillside and splashing the walls of Canisius with orange and flame, the sparkle and glitter of sunlight on the shimmering surface of Bellarmine Pond.

To some of us, she is the thump of a basketball against a polished wooden floor, the tense, excited catch of silent breath exploding into a crowd's exultant yell of victory, the hard, clean sound of a bat meeting a baseball, the sweeping, soaring arc of an athlete hurling across a high-bar.

To others, she is the hearty clasp of friendship, a philosophical discussion over coffee-cups in Loyola Cafeteria, the mellow scent of pipe tobacco mingling with the orange-and-flame of an autumn afternoon.

And to others, she is the crisp clear voice of a Professor expounding on the wonders of literature and the sciences, a wild confusion of textbooks, typewriters and term-papers, the cold, nervous ache that comes with each blue-book and the warm relief that comes with the knowledge that we have "passed", the sense of awe and almost-fear that comes with a realization of the endless vista of knowledge that lies sprawling before us.

Fairfield University is all of these things, and much more.

She is the reverent stillness of a morning Mass, the calm and peace of a moment's meditation in the half-dark stillness of Loyola Chapel, the name of God spoken softly and with reverence.

She is the scent of incense and the joyous sound of the Divine Praises, the whisper of Hail Marys and the rustle of leaves in May sunshine, a glittering Chalice held high and heads bowed low before their God.

She is a surge of Faith in the midst of darkness and uncertainty, a bud of Hope ripe for fruition in the hearts of her students, the almost tangible bond of Love that unites all of us, teacher, student, and every man, in the realization that, however divergent the paths we may choose, our destination is the same:

PER FIDEM AD PLENAM VERITATEM.

Acknowledgements

Whatever accomplishments the 1958 MANOR has achieved are due solely to the efforts of those who so faithfully devoted their time and energies to its production.

Many persons aided us in our work, but to some, special recognition must be given for their excellent contributions and for the dependable industry they incorporated to make our yearbook a reality. We are especially indebted:

To Rev. William J. Healy, S.J., Dean of the University, for his support and kind co-operation.

To Rev. John W. Ryan, S.J., our Moderator, for his guidance, his patience, and his friendship.

To Rev. Joseph E. McCormick, S.J., for his understanding and kind generosity.

To Mr. John J. McGuire, of T. O'Toole & Sons, printers of the 1958 MANOR, for his patience and understanding co-operation in the production and layout of our yearbook.

To Mr. George Avakian of Loring Studios for his helpful assistance, Mr. Wade Liddle for his patience and generosity, and Mr. Ernie Sinto of the Bridgeport studios for his service in regard to Senior photographs.

To Wilbur Fomento, Photography Editor; John Hall, his assistant; and to all who contributed photographs.

To Jack Weiss, Business Manager, without whose tireless work this yearbook could never be.

To Larry Fayette, Associate Editor; Gerry Gingras, Layout Editor; Phil Calcina, Literary Editor; for their untiring efforts and constant willingness.

To Santine Capria, Walt Naedele, Ray Bykowski, Charley Conway, Tom Squires, Pete Ciardiello, and all the others who gave of their time above and beyond the call of duty.

To the various student organizations, for their kind co-operation and financial contributions.

To all our advertisers, contributors, and patrons, without whose funds this volume could not have become a reality.

To the entire faculty and student body, for their whole-hearted support and complete co-operation.

To all of these, a humble "thank you".

Peter M. Baldetti
Editor-in-Chief

HONORED PATRONS

Dr. and Mrs. Pasquale Alvino
Mr. and Mrs. Michael Baldetti
Mrs. John Begg
Mrs. Thomas C. Betts
Mr. and Mrs. William H. Callan
Mr. and Mrs. George H. Campbell
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Capobianco
Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Capria
Mr. and Mrs. James J. Carney
Mrs. Raymond Carton
Mrs. Michael A. Catalano
Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Cerritelli
Mr. Joel Cherrytree
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Chester
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ciampi
Mrs. Marie J. Codeanne
Dr. and Mrs. Harold F. Connelly
Mr. and Mrs. Eugene F. Conroy
Mrs. J. W. Cunningham
Mr. Anthony Cuomo
Mr. and Mrs. James E. Czarzasty
Mrs. Achille D'Aprile
Mr. and Mrs. Edward De Luca
Mr. and Mrs. James F. Desmond
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Dowd, Jr.
Mr. and Mrs. John A. Early
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Emmanuelli
Mrs. Lawrence Fayette
Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Fear
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fenton, Sr.
Mr. Daniel G. Fitzmaurice
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Flaherty
Mr. and Mrs. John Fleming
Mr. and Mrs. Pierre J. Fleurant, Jr.
Mr. and Mrs. Marshall A. Fomento
Mr. Joseph P. Gabriel
Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Gallagher
Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Gamba
Mrs. John Gilmore
Mr. and Mrs. Gerald M. Gingras
Mr. and Mrs. Jose Gonzalez
Mr. and Mrs. Vito Guareglia
Mr. and Mrs. John F. Hawkins
Mr. and Mrs. William A. Heller
Mr. Frederich J. Higgins
Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. James
Mr. and Mrs. John A. Jones
Mr. and Mrs. Michael F. Kane
Mr. and Mrs. William E. Keish, Sr.
Mr. Patrick J. Kelly, Sr.
Dr. and Mrs. Charles K. Kennedy
Mr. and Mrs. Daniel V. Kilfoyle

HONORED PATRONS

Mrs. John King
Mrs. Dominick Lardizzone
Mrs. John La Terra
Mr. Michael A. Loughman
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Lupo
Mr. A. A. Magnier
Mr. Frank Maguire
Mrs. James V. Maher
Mrs. Francis P. Martino
Mr. and Mrs. John J. Masterson
Mrs. Edward Mastrangelo
Mrs. James Mauri
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. McGee
Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Monaco
Mrs. William B. Monk
Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Moran
Mr. and Mrs. Peter Morano
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moylan
Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Murphy
Mr. and Mrs. James T. O'Brien
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Leary
Mr. and Mrs. Christopher J. Papallo
Mr. and Mrs. Ardwin A. Pulie
Mr. and Mrs. Richard Purcell
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Raucci
Mr. and Mrs. William E. Reynolds
Mrs. Joseph Rosati
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Ryan
Mr. and Mrs. Marcelino San Miguel
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas N. Scully
Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Simpson
Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Skapcznski
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon E. Terrell
Mr. and Mrs. Macario Testa
Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Thibault
Mr. and Mrs. M. Voytek
Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Waide
Mrs. Walter W. Wallin
Mr. and Mrs. Andrew D. Warwick
Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Waters
Mrs. Hans Weidig
Mr. Hans Weidig
Mr. and Mrs. Marvin H. Weiss
Mr. Richard White
Mrs. Hortense Winans
Mr. and Mrs. Vincent C. Wood
Mr. Martin Zadravec
Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Zelle
Mr. and Mrs. Romuald J. Zielinski
Center Restaurant

PATRONS

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Amenta
Mr. Santo Amenta
Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Babuscio
Mr. James Bandura
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barr
Mr. and Mrs. Roger Beliveau
Mr. and Mrs. George Berardi
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Bigham
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bobay
Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Bosco
Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bowen
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Bown
Mr. and Mrs. John M. Brady
Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Brady
Mr. and Mrs. George M. Bramwell
Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bucciarelli
Mrs. Frances E. Buckley
Mr. and Mrs. H. Bykowski
Mr. and Mrs. Fred I. Cahill, Jr.
Mr. and Mrs. Anthony F. Caragliano
Dr. F. H. Carr
Mrs. V. Cavalieri
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chagnon
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Charlow
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chopskie
Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Colette
Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Connor
Mr. and Mrs. Michael Corey
Mr. and Mrs. James Crowley
Mr. J. J. Cunningham
Mr. R. J. Cunningham, Sr.
Dr. and Mrs. Pablo G. Curbelo
Mr. and Mrs. William Curley
Mr. and Mrs. Oreste D'Aiuto
Mr. and Mrs. James F. Daly
Dr. and Mrs. Patrick De Canio
Mr. and Mrs. J. Di Benedetto
Mr. Simon Distinti
Mrs. Molly Doherty
Mr. and Mrs. James F. Dolin, Sr.
Mr. Timothy E. Downey
Mr. Walter Dziczkowski
Mr. Thomas M. Eboli
Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. Esposito
Mr. and Mrs. George K. Farrell
Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Feehan
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth H. Felsmann
Mr. William Fengler
Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Ferris
Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Fisher
Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Fitzgerald
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Flannigan
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Flood
Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Fortuna
Dr. and Mrs. M. Fratantuno
Mr. John P. Gahan
Mr. and Mrs. John H. Garity
Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Garrity
Mr. and Mrs. John Genoni
Mr. and Mrs. John F. Gibbons
Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Gilbertie
Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gilhuly
Mr. and Mrs. Vincent E. Giordano
Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Gniadek
Mr. and Mrs. Leon G. Grassler
Mr. Howard Green
Mr. Fred Harberg
Mr. Alphonse Heche
Mr. and Mrs. David C. Henrickson
Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Houser
Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Hutchins
Mr. Edward R. Jobes
Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Jones
Mrs. Robert Keefe
Mr. and Mrs. John C. Kelley
Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Kelly

PATRONS

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Kelly
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Keough
Mrs. Daniel E. Kiley, Jr.
Mr. John E. Kramer
Mr. and Mrs. Stephen G. Kristofak
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kurimsky
Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Laness
Mr. and Mrs. Michael La Conte
Mrs. Kathleen Lapman
Mr. John S. Lesko, Sr.
Mr. and Mrs. John Libuha
Mr. and Mrs. Morton Lockert
Mrs. Anna Lops
Mr. and Mrs. John J. Lyons, Jr.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Madden
Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Margiotta
Mr. Frank B. McAneny
Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. McCarthy
Mrs. Frank J. McConville
Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. McDonald
Mr. and Mrs. F. L. McGowan
Mr. Owen C. McKnight
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. McManus
Merly Construction Company
Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Misa
Mr. Frank P. Mondo
Mr. and Mrs. John P. Mullen
Mr. Edward S. Murphy
Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Murphy
Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Murphy
Mrs. Wallace V. Murray
Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Nagy
Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Nalewajk
Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. O'Hagan
Mr. and Mrs. James J. O'Keefe, Sr.
Mr. and Mrs. George Okenquist
Mrs. Carla D. O'Reilly
Mr. and Mrs. Martin Panuczak
Mr. Salvatore Paolillo
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Parendo
Mr. Louis F. Parent
Mr. and Mrs. Alex Parker
Mr. Espedito Pauciello
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pavlis
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Perrine, Jr.
Mr. and Mrs. John Pezzlo
Mr. S. Poor, Jr.
Mr. Manuel Preto-Rodas
Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Ressler
Mr. and Mrs. John Rice
Mr. Joseph Rinaldi
Mr. and Mrs. William Ripke
Mr. James A. Ruddy
Mr. and Mrs. Pasquale Russo
Mr. Anthony Salcito
Mr. Antanas Saulaitis
Mr. Andrew J. Sedensky
Mr. Thomas J. Seery
Rev. Yaroslav Shust
Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Smith
Mr. Edward F. Sobolewski
Mr. Joseph J. Sorrento
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred F. Spencer
Mrs. Stephen Spodnick
Mrs. William Tagg
Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Tedone
Mr. and Mrs. A. Tiscornia
Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Tomasko
Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Tracy
Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Traub
Mr. Thomas Ungerland
Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Vath
Mr. and Mrs. Warren H. Willard
Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Williams
Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Yaggi
Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Zucco

Best Wishes

to the CLASS OF 1958

From

THE IGNATIAN COUNCIL

No. 4303

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Congratulations

and

Best Wishes

From the

FAIRFIELD UNIVERSITY ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

BOARD OF DIRECTORS 1957-1958

John F. Callan, Jr.	'56
Robert Conroy	'52
Dominic A. DePonte	'51
John King	'51
Bronislaw S. Orlowski	'53
James H. Rourke	'57
Joseph Skeritt	'51
Anthony T. Varone	'51
Joseph Cuomo	'52
Robert Petrucelli	'54
Anthony Pagliero	'54
John P. Reilly	'51
Richard A. McCormick	'52

excellent design

skilled craftsmanship

superb quality

RINGS
PINS
MEDALS
CHARMS
CUPS
PLAQUES
TROPHIES

YOUR CLASS JEWELER

DIEGES & CLUST

BOSTON 17 JOHN STREET, NEW YORK 8, N. Y. PROVIDENCE

MANUFACTURING JEWELERS

Compliments of

LORING STUDIOS

Photographers for the 1958 Manor

Compliments of

SAVOY LAUNDRY & LINNEN SUPPLY, INC.

425 WOODEND ROAD
STRATFORD, CONNECTICUT

A complete line of:

LAUNDRY DRY CLEANING AND RENTAL SERVICE

BRANCH STORE

941 EAST MAIN STREET
BRIDGEPORT, CONNECTICUT

ON BEHALF OF THE STUDENT BODY

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

EXTENDS BEST WISHES

TO THE

1958 Manor

THE E. & F. CONSTRUCTION CO.

Builders

BRIDGEPORT

CONNECTICUT

COMPLIMENTS OF

THE NEW HAVEN AREA CLUB

SENIOR MEMBERS

Edward J. Gallagher
George F. Moran
John Early
Dick Lee
Raymond Bykowski
Peter Ciardiello
William Keish
John Kelley
Richard Kearney
Patrick Kennedy
Richard Ferraro
Alfred E. Neuman
Thomas Squires
James Carney
Walter Lucia
Joe Cosgrove
Wilbur Fomento
Peter Baldetti

Compliments of

The Waterbury Undergraduate Club

THE PARK CITY SUPPLY CO.

VALVES . . . PIPE . . . FITTINGS

63 KNOWLTON STREET
BRIDGEPORT, CONNECTICUT

TELEPHONE: FO 8-2576 P.O. BOX 470

LEVERTY AND HURLEY CO.

260 BOSTWICK AVENUE

BRIDGEPORT, CONNECTICUT

GRAY LINE BUS COMPANY

137 DOVER STREET
BRIDGEPORT, CONNECTICUT

ROBERT ROLLINS BLAZERS, INC.

832 BRODAWAY
NEW YORK 3, N. Y.

Specialized Blazer Service

to

Schools	Classes
Colleges	Athletic Teams
Golf Clubs	Awards Committees
Sororities	Bands
Fraternities	Glee Clubs
Honor Societies	Choral Groups

"The extras in printing at no extra cost."

Why pay more when we can assure the best in creative quality and service?

Books . . . Booklets . . . Catalogues Reports

BUSINESS OR PERSONAL STATIONERY

THE FAIRFIELD PRESS

Division of Fairfield County Publications

Offices:
1150 POST ROAD, FAIRFIELD
CL 9-3366

73 E. STATE STREET, WESTPORT
CA 7-4171

J. J. VINCI COMPANY

NEWFIELD STREET
MIDDLETOWN, CONNECTICUT

Transportation of Fuel Oil

BUNKER, C.

ASPHALT, TARS, AND EMULSIONS

Phone: DI 6-6655

Compliments of

DIVISION I

Ancient Order of Hibernians

MIDDLETOWN, CONNECTICUT

For exceptional Formal Wear

see

FORMAL CLEANERS

1759-61 MAIN STREET BRIDGEPORT

Phone ED 7-9027

Compliments of . . .

FAIRFIELD LAUNDROMAT

1227 POST ROAD

(opposite Post Office)

CL 9-7286

CL 9-5941

HENRY'S MEN'S SHOP

Store Hours 8:30-5:30 — Friday 8:30-9:00

1539 POST ROAD FAIRFIELD

Style-Mart Clothes . . . Van Heusen Shirts

Haggar Slack

SPECIAL STUDENT RATES

REALTORS IN FAIRFIELD SINCE 1926

WALSH AND STURGES

11 UNQUOWA ROAD

FAIRFIELD, CONNECTICUT

Compliments of

BREITHERS SUNOCO SERVICE STATION

1136 POST ROAD FAIRFIELD

Phone CL 9-5919

VILLAGE PHARMACY

Francis W. Burns, Reg. Ph.; Mgr.

Joseph F. Mach, Lic. Phar.

1460 POST ROAD FAIRFIELD

CL 9-5693

FAIRFIELD CENTER JEWELERS

1498 POST ROAD

FAIRFIELD CENTER

"YOUR LOCAL JEWELER"

DESERVED SUCCESS

ENDURING MEMORIES WILL BE BRIGHTENED

TO . . .

THE MANOR

SUNDAY HERALD

Bridgeport and State Editions

Bridgeport, all
Fairfield County,
New Haven, Hartford
Waterbury and New London

COMPLIMENTS OF

THE METROPOLITAN CLUB

VINCENT TEDONE
President

WILLIAM MORRISSEY
Vice-President

JACK TOAL
Treasurer

MICHAEL JAMES
Recording Secretary

CARL GUAREGLIA
Corresponding Secretary

Tel.: LUdlow 5-4200

ARC WELDING SUPPLY COMPANY, Inc.

WELDING EQUIPMENT and SUPPLIES
OXYGEN - ACEYTLENE

Sales and Service

467 BRUCKNER BOULEVARD
Cor. 149th Street
BRONX 55, N. Y.

Hans F. Weidig

William Scarnati

WAVERLY INN

ON THE COLLEGE HIGHWAY

CHESHIRE, CONNECTICUT

TELEPHONE 344

COMPLIMENTS

OF

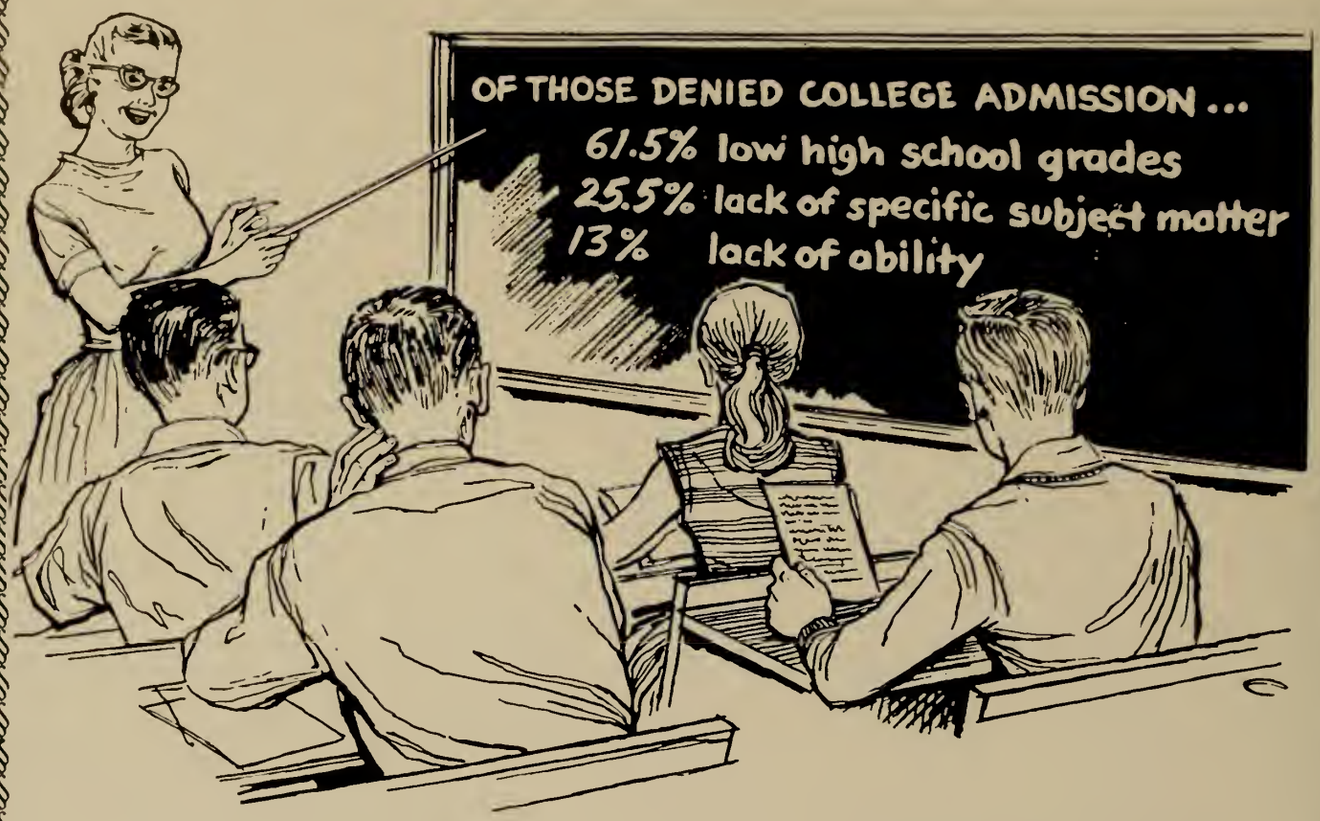
THE NEW HAVEN BELLARMINE GUILD

COMPLIMENTS

OF

THE BRIDGEPORT AREA CLUB

Can your child go to your college?



Every one of us has the hope that his son or daughter may be so well prepared that the admissions officer will say: "Your application is accepted. We will look forward to seeing you in the fall." But sometimes plans go amiss.

We at General Electric have for years been urging youth to aim high, work hard, master the basic subjects, and go on to college.

Recently, we sent a questionnaire to 100 college-admissions officers. We asked: "What are the reasons some high-school students are admitted and others rejected?" The 78 replies we received contained a great unanimity of opinion.

We have summarized those replies in a booklet, Start Planning Now for Your Career; the illustration on this page, taken from the booklet, gives a clue as to its content.

We believe that the alumnus can work for the best interests of his college by sending to that college young people prepared to receive a higher education.

We further believe that our summary of opinions of admissions officers is so persuasively compelling that the boy or girl who reads it must ask himself whether he is choosing his courses wisely and getting high enough marks.

Perhaps with this booklet in hand and supporting its thesis with your own experience, you can help persuade your child, or another child in whom you have an interest, to prepare against the day when an admissions officer will review his record. We invite you to write for a copy (or copies) to Community Relations, General Electric Company, Bridgeport 2, Connecticut.

GENERAL ELECTRIC

direct sales

personal service

original layouts

art service

retouching composition mechanicals

halftone and line negatives

film and plate stripping plate making offset printing

folding

complete bindery service delivery

under one roof

t. o'toole and sons, inc., yearbook printers stamford

connecticut

stamford davis 4-9226
new york melrose 5-4112

XAVIER HALL

An End . . .

. . . And A Beginning